Driver Killed As Auto Hits Pole

Samuel Knisley, 60, Dies after Crash; 20 Other Persons Injured

A man was killed and 20 persons were injured in 10 of 27 traffic accidents in the Quad-City area during the weekend.

Samuel M. Knisley, 60, of 1944 Grand avenue, apparently suffered fatal injuries when his auto struck a utility pole in the 3000 block of Madison at 1:35 a.m. Saturday. He was pronounced dead at St. Elizabeth Hospital 15 minutes later.

Witnesses who were headed south behind him said that he was driving about 35 miles per hour and that his car suddenly swerved toward the pole in front of Granite City high school after rounding the turn from Namecki road.

The crash damaged the right front of the car and an Illinois Power Co. pole. Mr. Knisley, who suffered a chest injury and forehead laceration, was taken to the hospital by ambulance. Whether he might have been stricken with a sudden illness was not determined; he is not believed to have been under recent medical care. An inquest will be conducted.

Mr. Knisley was employed as bartender at the Pontoon Beach Tavern, having worked there for the past six months. Born in Leadville, Colo., he had resided in Granite City for 10 years. He was a member of the Methodist church and the bartenders' union.

His lone survivor is a brother, George Knisley of Birmingham, Ala.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Boy on Bike Hurt

Rahm Wood, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood, of 1128 Rodger avenue, was seriously injured when his bicycle was struck by an auto driven by Henry C. Gant, 2835 Wayne avenue, at 6:50 p.m. Thursday on St. Clair avenue near the drainage ditch.

The boy was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment and x-rays and then was transferred to Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital in St. Louis where surgery was performed.

School Candidate Filing Opens Wednesday

Contests Shaping Up In All 3 Quad-City Area Districts

A three-way contest for two school board posts open to election in this year's school election in Madison District 12 was developing today with the period for filing petitions held today only two days away.

School elections will be held this year on Saturday, April 13. Granite City District 9 is to elect three board members to regular terms and one member to fill an unexpired term, and Venice District 3 is to elect three members to regular terms and one to fill the two-year unexpired term of the late John Gonterman.

The filing period will open Wednesday and continue through March 31. The withdrawal deadline will be March 26.

Thus far, the most heated contest for board posts is in Madison District 12 as a result of racial strife at the Madison high school last November.

Incumbents to Run

The office of school Supt. Raymond Dragich reported today that petitions of candidacy have been obtained by Ed Blumensack and Frank Berner, incumbents whose terms expire this year.

In addition, Thomas A. Weston, chairman of the Madison Chapter of the NAACP, obtained two sets of petitions. Mrs. Weston said the petitions were obtained from Rev. J. C. Calmes, pastor of the Friendship Baptist church, who has announced he will be a candidate. Mrs. Weston said the NAACP will endorse Rev. Calmes and campaign for him, but has not decided on a second candidate. She said the two petitions were obtained in the event more space for signatures was needed.

Dragich's office also said petitions have been given to William Gushel, 1617 Fourth street, Madison.

Thomas Watson of Madison, one of the leaders of white parents who took an active part in alternating Negro and white boycotts at Madison school last November has announced he will be a candidate. He reportedly had not obtained petitions.

Union Agrees to Limit Pickets in Court Agreement

Issues of an injunction plea filed by A. O. Smith Corp. against Boilermakers' Union Local 575 as a result of mass picketing activities was settled by agreement in a hearing this morning before Circuit Judge James O. Monroe in circuit court at Edwardsville.

The injunction proceedings were filed Friday afternoon naming 17 officers and members of the union as defendants. The hearing was set for 10 a.m. today.

It charged the union with delaying, blocking and preventing employees of A. O. Smith from entering the plant, and alleged the defendants had prevented the company from "transportation, shipping or conveying the plaintiffs' products and other items."

Asked Limit on Pickets

The suit sought a temporary restraining order and injunction to restrain the defendants from such activities. It asked the court to limit the number of pickets and to require the pickets to march in single file and maintain a space at least 20 feet apart at each entrance.

Instead of calling witnesses who had been subpoenaed during the weekend, the issues were discussed before Judge Monroe by Attorney J. F. Souders, St. Louis, representing the union, and by Randall Robertson and Leo Kozzen, representing the company. The discussions were held in open court before the principals of both sides.

All of the issues were resolved verbally, with the union agreeing to maintain five pickets at each of the plant gates. The union also pledged peaceful picketing with "no obstructions" to plant activities.

The agreement that the injunction complaint would be held in abeyance. Souders agreed to remain on four-hour notice.

Strikes in 57th Day

The strike of 1200 members of the Boilermakers' Union began at the plant Jan. 1 and went into its 57th day today. Meetings of both sides with U. S. mediators in St. Louis have resulted in no progress toward settlement of the strike, according to both union and company spokesmen.

In addition to the injunction proceedings, General Motors Corp. filed a replevin suit against A. O. Smith Corp. for recovery of auto frames and other property worth $185,000 now on plant property.

Last week, supervisory employees at the plant loaded approximately 1200 auto frames on rail flat cars, but has made no effort thus far to ship them out of the plant.

HUNDREDS OF GOLFERS took advantage of yesterday's breakthrough from freezing temperatures and took to the links at Arlington Golf Course. It wasn't a shirt-sleeve day as the temperature did not get out of the 40s. Other Quad-Cityans flew kites, washed cars, worked in their yards or took rides on the sunny Sunday.

Demo Leaders in Chicago to Name State Candidates

Illinois Democratic leaders were expected to announce their endorsement of candidates for U. S. Senator and governor late today after leaders of the state Democratic central committee huddle in Chicago with Mayor Richard J. Daley.

The committee's slate-making job got under way in Springfield Friday with a closed door session in which it received qualifications of candidates for the top party spots on this year's election ballot.

State Sen. Paul Simon of Troy, who has been conducting an active campaign in a bid for endorsement in the U. S. Senator's post where he would oppose veteran Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, said in Springfield that he prefers the senatorial post, but indicated he would accept any "draft" for any post, such as lieutenant governor.

Other Candidates Bid

Gov. Otto Kerner's recent announcement that he would not seek re-election cleared the way for a flurry of applicants for the governor's post. Among these are R. S. Sargent Shriver, director of the anti-poverty program, and General William G. Clark and State Auditor Michael J. Howlett.

The permit for a five-room frame and aluminum home at 202 Briarwood to cost $11,000 was issued to A. R. Cooper. A permit was issued for a three-room station at 3051-53 Washington avenue at a cost of $10,000. Other permits were twenty-two by.

Clifford Parks, 725 Twenty-seventh place, Garage, 5770; Glen Bettorf, 1530 Johnson road, 1715; 24-foot concrete block garage for $6000; W. E. Ashby, 2032 Edison avenue, repair porch, $700; and Marvin Wallace, 2733 Washington, 19,665 games will be today.

Stevenson reportedly told the committee that if he were endorsed as the senatorial candidate, he might have to oppose President Johnson on Vietnam. At the same time he told them he would make "the strongest candidate for governor."

Secretary of State Paul Powell presented a credentials for nomination. Powell was asked if he would run on a ticket with Stevenson and Powell replied that he would cross that bridge when he came to it. Stevenson and Simon said they will run with, despite their reported differences, with Powell.

Gene Graves, director of the Department of Business and Economic Development, presented his qualifications for the lieutenant-governor's endorsement, did not attend.

8 Undergo Surgery At Local Hospital

Eight persons have undergone surgery at St. Elizabeth Hospital since Thursday.

They are Jeff E. Caple, 508 Bend road; William Stagg, 707 Twenty-sixth street; Alberta Burton, 2447a East 24th street; Jane Parkinson, 2333 Willow avenue.

Moreno Grishon, 2240 Waterman avenue; John Mitchell, 2506 Denver street; Alan Johnson, St. Louis; and Brenda O'Beir, 2026 Alton street, Madison.

$850 Drum Set, Tools Worth $400 Stolen from Truck

An $850 set of drums and tools valued at $400 were stolen from the yard of Marvin Singer, Route Two, Box 848, he advised the Madison county sheriff's office at 8:40 a.m. Sunday. The drums had been left in a pickup truck parked in the yard, and the tools had been in a garage.

Mildred Hordesky, 2710 Center street, reported at 7:40 p.m. Sunday that her purse containing about $100, keys, driver's license and credit card was stolen from her apartment. There was no sign of forced entry.

Household Items Stolen

Household items were stolen in a break-in at the home of Mrs. Verna Dicks, 3120 Arlington, State Park place, she reported at 11 p.m. Sunday.

4 Apt. Buildings To Cost $132,000 On Maryville Rd.

A building permit was issued last week to contractor Arthur Miller for construction of four apartment buildings in the 3300 block of Maryville road at a cost of $132,000.

They will contain four four-room apartments each for a total of 16 rooms. Seven permits, including one for a home and one for a service station, were issued during the week with values totaling $100,650. Totals for the first three weeks of the month were 12 permits and $237,050.

The permit for a five-room frame and aluminum home at 202 Briarwood to cost $11,000 was issued to A. R. Cooper. A permit was issued for a three-room station at 3051-53 Washington avenue at a cost of $10,000. Other permits were twenty-two by.

Starts Here March 9

Elks Getting Ready for State Bowling Tourney

Final arrangements for state bowling tournament of the Elks lodge will be held here for seven weekends starting March 9—will be made at a meeting Wednesday evening at the local lodge. It was announced today by Vincent Bischof, general chairman.

Hundreds of bowlers from Elks lodges throughout the state are expected here each of the seven weekends, and in the tournament it is estimated 19,665 games will be bowled. Bischof and C. O. Parker, exalted ruler, are urging all bowlers to be on the scene at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday to finalize plans. Bischof said William Thoeke and Hediger, who are on the housing committee, have announced that accommodations for all bowlers have been arranged at six local area motels.

Pre-Tourney festivities are to begin on Saturday, March 9, with a reception and luncheon from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the local lodge with all past exalted rulers on the reception committee and the Elkettes in charge of the luncheon.

At 12:30 p.m. the group will leave in a motorcade with police escort for Bowland lanes where the opening ceremony will take place about 1 p.m.

Dignitaries in the opening ceremonies will include Paul Edmonds, past exalted ruler of the local lodge as master of ceremonies; Mayor Partney, C. O. Parker and Rex O. Henil of Jacksonville, national president of the Elks National Bowling Association.

State Elks officers to participate are I. H. Stipp of Springfield, president; Robert Flynn, first vice-president; Roland J. DeMarco of Mt. Carmel, second vice-president; Jack F. Sullivan of Joliet, secretary; and Roy J. Sheahan of Highland Park, treasurer.

Others will include Gilbert N. Wood of Mt. Vernon, president of the Illinois Elks Bowling Association.

Firemen Rescue 2 In Burning Residence

Leon LaBlanc and His Daughter, Maria, 5, In Serious Condition

Granite City firemen rescued Leon LaBlanc, 43, and his daughter, Maria, five years old, from their burning, smoke-filled home at 3016 Sunbury avenue at midnight Saturday night.

Summoned by neighbors and told that there were probably two or three persons inside the blazing frame dwelling, fire fighters entered the building and groped about until Fireman George Smolch found the girl on the floor of her bedroom. He carried her outdoors and applied mouth-to-mouth resuscitation for about five minutes to restore her breathing.

A Wilson school kindergarten pupil, she is in serious condition at Cardinal Glennon Hospital, St. Louis, with smoke inhalation and first- and second-degree burns of the face, arms and right hand.

Found in Bath Tub

Other firemen continued the search and unexpectedly found LaBlanc in the bathroom. Seriously burned, he pulled off his blazing clothing and ran to the tub in an apparent effort to soothe his burns. LaBlanc was conscious but unable to speak and was given oxygen by the firemen.

He is a patient in a St. Louis hospital. Both of the fire victims were treated initially at St. Elizabeth Hospital after being rushed there in ambulances.

The damage was principally confined to the living room, where it is believed he may have fallen asleep in a chair while smoking. Two chairs and window drapes in that room were destroyed.

The fire apparently flashed when oxygen reached the smoldering chair, melting a telephone.

Damage was limited to $2500—$2000 lost to the building and $500 to the contents.

300 Cast Ballots in Chouteau by 11 a.m.

More than 300 residents cast ballots by 11 a.m. today in the incorporation election for the proposed village of Chouteau.

Voting, which started at a.m., will continue until 6 p.m. today at the Fun 'n' beach resort building on Thorngate drive near Interstate 270.

Election officials said the polling place was normal and calm and that no untoward incident had taken place despite active campaigns for and against the proposal.

To be eligible to vote, individuals must be residents of Illinois for a year, Madison county 90 days and the 1.91-square-mile village area 30 days. They need not be registered.

ELMER A. TAYLOR New Board Secretary

Elmer Taylor is New Secretary Of Venice Board

Elmer A. Taylor, who is serving his first three-year term on the Venice school board, was named secretary Friday evening at a special meeting of school officials. He replaces John E. Gonterman, who died unexpectedly Feb. 13.

Venice board members also issued a public notice that a two-year board vacancy will be filled in the April 13 election, also created by Mr. Gonterman's death. The filing period starts Wednesday and continues until Saturday, March 23.

In addition to the two-year vacancy, three other positions on the board will be contested in this year's election, with expiration of the three-year terms of incumbents Jack Tolliver, Leo Davinroy and Taylor.

Taylor, 49, is employed as an engineer equipment and mechanical supervisor at Granite City Army Depot. He and his wife, Marcella, and daughters, Mary Catherine, Shirley Evelyn, Margaret Ann and Sharon Joyce, reside at 204 Kerr street.

He is active in the Venice Crippled Children's Organization, the Venice Methodist Church, VFW Post 1300 and Venice-Madison American Legion Post 307.

Bids This Spring On Construction Of Dikes

Cong. Melvin Price reported late last week that the St. Louis District Corps of Engineers has issued a revised 1967-68 construction schedule for area flood control and navigation projects.

Col. George Decker, district engineer, released the project information to Price, who indicated bids will be sought on four area projects before the end of the fiscal year June 30.

Bids will be advertised in March for construction of stone dikes for the Mississippi River regulating works navigation project. Estimated cost range of the work is set between $100,000 and $1 million.

In April, bids will be sought for upgrading of recreational facilities in the Coles Creek Recreational Area at the Carlyle Dam. Also, a bid call will be issued that month for construction of boat ramps at three locations at the Shelbyville Reservoir. Both projects are in the $100,000 to $1 million range.

Bids will be sought in May and June for dike repairs to the Mississippi River navigation project. This operation and maintenance activity will also be in the $100,000 to $1 million range.

Cong. Price urged area contractors to contact the St. Louis District Corps of Engineers Office, 906 Olive street, St. Louis, Mo. 63101 for details on bid procedures.

Teen GOP Election, Heritage Discussion

A meeting of the Teen Age Republican Club was held Thursday in the home of the advisor, Mrs. Vernice Wortman, followed by a Washington's Birthday party.

A brief business session was held, with election of officers for 1968. They are Daniel McKee, president, Mark Twitemeyer, vice-president, Kirk Darnier, secretary, and Keith Darnier, treasurer.

The group made plans to send dues to the State Teen Age Federation and discussed sending delegates to the federation convention in April.

Plans also were made to attend a Madison County Republican dinner March 23 in Alton.

There was an informal discussion on "The Republican Heritage" and Mrs. Wortman gave highlights of speeches made by Senators Everett Dirksen and Charles McNamara at Springfield on Lincoln's birthday.

More Venice Fires

Venice firemen answered two more alarms yesterday in a continuing rash of fire calls, virtually all of them grass fires.

An alarm at 12:50 p.m. took firemen to Apt. 45, Lee Wright Homes, where a pot had boiled dry on the stove, causing considerable smoke. No one was home at the time. There was no damage. At 1:53 p.m. firemen were called to Seventh and Fillmore streets to extinguish a grass fire. Last week firemen answered 13 alarms in four days.

Student Play, 'Sea Gull,' at SIU-SW Theater

Anton Chekhov's "The Sea Gull" will be presented at Southern Illinois University Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, Feb. 29-Mar. 2, at 8:15 in the Communications Building theater of the Southwestern campus.

According to literary critics, "A Russian story is always the story of the undoing of a life." Chekhov's drama is no exception.

"The Sea Gull" deals with the problems of a family and their friends who experience difficulty establishing a and maintaining satisfying relations with each other and the world in general.

Beauty, Fame Fading

Irina, a middle-aged but still beautiful actress trying to cope with problems of fading beauty and fame, will be portrayed by Debbie Decker, East Alton. Irina's lover, Trigorin, a moderately popular author who fears he will never be great professionally, will be played by Dale Swann, Wood River.

The actress' muddled and melancholy Constantine, played by Michael Sgroi, St. Louis, is hopelessly in love with a wealthy landowner's daughter, Nina, whose part is played by Linda Wylder, Wood River.

Nina is enchanted with the debonair Trigorin and obsessed with the idea of becoming an actress. She runs off with him and becomes a common actress but a very uncommon person.

Deserted by Trigorin, she returns, but only to once more reject Constantine, who can no longer live with her rejection.

Teen GOP Election, Heritage Discussion

A meeting of the Teen Age Republican Club was held Thursday in the home of the advisor, Mrs. Vernice Wortman, followed by a Washington's Birthday party.

A brief business session was held, with election of officers for 1968. They are Daniel McKee, president, Mark Twitemeyer, vice-president, Kirk Darnier, secretary, and Keith Darnier, treasurer.

The group made plans to send dues to the State Teen Age Federation and discussed sending delegates to the federation convention in April.

Plans also were made to attend a Madison County Republican dinner March 23 in Alton.

There was an informal discussion on "The Republican Heritage" and Mrs. Wortman gave highlights of speeches made by Senators Everett Dirksen and Charles McNamara at Springfield on Lincoln's birthday.

More Venice Fires

Venice firemen answered two more alarms yesterday in a continuing rash of fire calls, virtually all of them grass fires.

An alarm at 12:50 p.m. took firemen to Apt. 45, Lee Wright Homes, where a pot had boiled dry on the stove, causing considerable smoke. No one was home at the time. There was no damage. At 1:53 p.m. firemen were called to Seventh and Fillmore streets to extinguish a grass fire. Last week firemen answered 13 alarms in four days.

County NFO Chapter To Meet Tonight

The regular monthly meeting of the Madison County National Farmers Organization will be held at 8 p.m. today in the Community Hall at Hamel.

A report on the progress of the NFO grain and meat holding action will be presented, as will a report on the nation-wide membership drive in which membership is now at a record high.

Also scheduled for presentation is a report from the Congressional Record on shipments of vegetable oils now being unloaded at New Orleans by the Wesson Co. for replacing cotton, corn and soybean oil in the manufacture of food products.

Members who have not signed their grain into the NFO agreements are urged to do so, according to Erwin Wein, chairman of the Madison county organization.

Highway Map Features State Sesquicentennial

Copies of the Official Illinois Highway Map for 1968, issued jointly by Otto Kerner and Secretary of State Paul Powell, are now available for free distribution.

The 1968 map is printed in two sections. The second section is labeled "City Map Supplement" and contains maps of the Chicago Metropolitan Expressway System, the local metropolitan area and a number of other cities.

The reverse side of the regular map showing highways throughout the state is devoted to the Illinois Sesquicentennial observance. In addition to descriptive material, the layout includes a number of color scenic photos of various sections of the state.

Copies of the map may be obtained at information stations in the state capital and the new state office building in Springfield.

Written requests for copies of the map should be sent to the Illinois Division of Highways, Room 130, at 2300 South First street, Springfield, 62706; or Secretary of State's Office, Room 115 State Capitol Building, Springfield, Ill., 62706.

State Trooper Classes Open

Applications are being received for additional classes for prospective state troopers. It was announced today by William H. Morris, superintendent of Illinois State Police.

A total of 300 new officers will be added to the force under current manpower authorization, and a class of 49 new troopers was graduated last week.

Professional studies include criminal investigation, weapons, jurisprudence, traffic law enforcement and subjects such as first aid and judo.

Applications are being received by the State Police Merit Board, Ridgely building, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

Entrance tests are being held throughout the state on the first Saturday of each month at 14 state police district headquarters offices. The local District 11 headquarters is at Maryville where Capt. Emil Toffant of Madison is the commanding officer.

Car Hits Bridge Rail

The eastbound auto of Horace Carney, 200 Hill street, Eagle Park, was damaged on the right side at 4:10 p.m. Friday when it struck a railing on the McKinley Bridge.

Trip to London

2 Courses on Victorian Novel Offered at SIU-SW

Two courses on the Victorian novel will be offered in London this summer in conjunction with a 10-week program of travel and study sponsored by Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The two graduate courses, English 555, a study of Charles Dickens' novels, and 454b, a study of the Victorian novel, will be taught by Robert W. Duncan, professor in the Humanities Division at the SIU-SW campus. Classes are scheduled to run between June 19 and Aug. 2.

From Aug. 3 to Aug. 27 students will be free to travel in Britain or on the continent.

"Studying in the hub of the Victorian British Empire," Duncan said, "students can see the actual places which appear in the novels of such authors as George Meredith, George Eliot, Thomas Hardy, William Thackeray, Joseph Conrad, Samuel Butler, and Anthony Trollope, and have right hand access to such sources of primary material as the British Museum, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Dickens National Museum, and many others."

Duncan pointed out that he and Mrs. Marion Taylor, who will teach two Shakespeare courses in London, have arranged their schedules "so there will be no conflict if students wish to study one of Prof. Taylor's courses and one of mine."

A University of Cincinnati Ph.D. Prof. Duncan joined the SIU staff in 1957. A former newspaper reporter, he is author of a number of published articles and short stories. Duncan is currently on sabbatical leave from SIU but further details concerning his London classes may be secured by writing him at Southern Illinois University, Alton 62002.

The department said the disqualification was ordered by the Food Stamp Review officer following the store's appeal of an earlier disqualification, which permitted the store to accept stamps during the appeal period.

Investigation disclosed, the department said, that the store violated program regulations by accepting food coupons in exchange for ineligible items; giving credit slips in excess of the allowable 49 cents in a food coupon transaction; accepting loose $2 coupons; giving cash in exchange for coupons; and giving cash as change for food coupons.

The disqualification is for a period of 90 days, after which the store may apply for reauthorization. The department said, however, the disqualification does not preclude the possibility of civil or criminal action in the courts under applicable federal statutes, or the filing of claims against the retailer.

Drivers Arrested After Nameoki-Madison Crash

Both drivers were arrested after a collision at 2:10 a.m. Sunday. Dennis Barbee, 20, of 4912 Mueller avenue was charged with reckless driving and speeding and William Boyer, 19, Rural Route One, was charged with reckless driving. Police said Barbee passed Boyer on Madison avenue and Boyer, in the outside lane, started to pass as the two autos made the left turn onto Nameoki road. They collided, damaging the right side of Barbee's car and the left side of the other auto.

Market Street Crash — Eastbound autos of Charles Hatter, Brooklyn, and Richard Hylla, 1816 Market street, Madison, were damaged in a collision and on Market at Broadway, Venice, at 3:55 p.m. Friday.

Extreme Cold Delays Sewer Project Start

Cold weather delayed Friday's start of the sanitary sewer construction in scattered sections of Granite City, Mayor Partney said he was advised Friday by General Contracting Co.

The contractor had been instructed to start the project Friday, but requested the delay for a break in the weather. The project is being financed with a $150,000 revenue bond issue and about $100,000 of the $1,500,000 grant of federal funds received last year by the city.

Auto Window Broken

Mrs. Gary Leach, 2905 Madison avenue, reported at 4:40 p.m. Friday that someone had broken the rear window of her 1959 auto while it was parked in front of her home Thursday evening.

Boys' Oratorical Contest By Optimists on Thursday

The 1968 Floyd T. Mitchell Boys' Oratorical contest, sponsored by the Noonday Optimist Club, has been announced by Dr. Raymond Troyer, president of the sponsoring club. The official title for the contest this year will be "The Golden Opportunities of Youth." The contest will be held on Thursday at 12:15 in the YMCA, according to Dr. Troyer.

Raymond T. Jones, chairman of the contest committee, said the winner of the local contest will compete against boys from other clubs in a zone and district contest.

Those boys who go on from the district contest will compete with other young men in a preliminary contest which will be held during the Annual Optimist International Convention in Louisville, Ky., June 16-20, 1968.

The five top speakers of the preliminaries will compete in the finals to be held during the final convention session. The winner of the international finals will receive a $2000 college scholarship, and each of the four runners-up will receive a $1000 college scholarship.

Last year more than 30,000 boys in Canada and the United States participated in local contests.

Garbage in Gas Tank

Willard White, 4019 Vesce avenue, reported at 2:30 p.m. Friday that someone had removed the cap from the gasoline tank of his auto and placed garbage in the tank.

Mrs. Agnes Massa, 89, Dies; 49-Year Resident

Mrs. Agnes Anna Massa, 89, of 2618 Cleveland blvd., died at the Colonades Nursing Home at 8:30 a.m. Friday. She had been a patient at the nursing home six years.

A native of St. Louis, Mrs. Massa had resided here for 49 years. She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Her husband, Antonio Massa, died in 1955.

Surviving are three nieces, Mrs. Anthony (Catherine P.) Michel of Granite City, Mrs. Tom (Jeanne) Syron and Mrs. Adolph (Olivia) Curatto, both of St. Louis; and a nephew, Paul Mueller, also of St. Louis.

Funeral services were held today. Arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Miss Ruth Meek Becomes Bride of Robert Balsley

Miss Ruth Meek, daughter of Mrs. Selma Meek, 102 Joan street, Hartford, and the late Leonard Meek, became the bride of Robert W. Balsley, 1401 S. Waterford avenue, Florissant, Mo., Saturday morning at St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, Wood River, Ill. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Balsley, Rural Route Three, Geneva, N. Y.

Rev. John Paul Brahlir officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony before an altar adorned with arrangements of white gladiolus and pom poms.

Miss Meek chose for her wedding a full length gown of white slipper satin A-line style with long sleeves ending at the wrists in bridal points. An over skirt of Schiffl lace was embroidered with pearls and tell to the hemline of a heavier lace border. The waistline chapel train of satin and lace appliques was attached at the back waistline. Schiffl lace and tiny seed pearls formed the headpiece which held in place a cloud veil of English silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white and red roses.

Miss Verna Bade, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Cathy Kling and Mrs. Carol Meek, a sister-in-law of the bride, served as bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of pomegranate silk, fashioned with a round neckline, sleeveless bodice worn under a bolero jacket with bell sleeves. The skirts were A-line and floor length. Their headpieces were of net petals edged with seed pearls and idescent sequins securing a bouffant veil.

Their flowers were a cascade arrangement of pink carnations.

Edward Balsley served his brother as best man, with Jerry Janowski and Earl Meek, brother of the bride from Granite City, were the groomsmen.

A reception for the wedding guests was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Wood River.

The former Miss Meek was employed as a stenographer at the A. O. Smith Corp. and Mr. Balsley is an electronics technician at McDonnell-Douglas Corp., St. Louis.

The newly-married couple will make their home in California.

Program on Iran For Bay View

A meeting of the Bay View Reading Club was conducted Thursday, in the home of Mrs. Robert Chapman, 2459 Delmar avenue. Mrs. A. E. Krumieck, president, conducted the business session, announcing plans for the group to attend the Illinois Sesqui-centennial historical celebration and pageant to be held March 22 at SIU-SW campus.

Ralph Frohardt, guest speaker, gave the program for this meeting on "Highlights of Iran" illustrating his talk with slides he had taken on a recent tour there.

Sixteen members attended along with guests, Mrs. W. Walter Kerch and Mrs. Sara Schroeder.

Mrs. Russell Johnson will serve as hostess for the next meeting on March 14.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

World Day of Prayer to be Observed Here on March 1st

The World Day of Prayer this year will be held at the Good Shepherd Evangelical United Brethren Church, 3025 National avenue, (Glenview) on March 1.

A fellowship hour is planned from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. and promptly at 10 a.m. an Hour of Prayer and Meditation will be led by Mrs. Mae Yoho Ward using the theme, "Bear One Another's Burdens."

The World Day of Prayer is sponsored by the Church Women United with Mrs. David Parrish of Central Christian Church, serving as chairman. She is extending an invitation to the public to attend the services.

Others participating in the program are Call to Worship, Concert in Miniature by Mrs. Carl Gross, violinist, with Mrs. Harold Watters as accompanist. Mesdames Marion Guest, Victor Anderson, Roy Thompson, David Evans, Leonard Davis, Thomas Christopher, Luella Deterding and Myrtle Landwehrmeier.

Mrs. Mae Yoho Ward, who is the featured speaker in the program, is well known for her 35 years of service as a religious education worker, missionary to Latin America and executive of the United Society. Mrs. Ward is a graduate of Bethany College, Bethany, W. Va., and has an MA degree from Yale University. She was granted the honorary degree of doctor of letters by Culver-Stockton College, Canton, Mo., and the DD by Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. Mrs. Ward is listed in Who's Who of American Women.

She is a member of the Commission on Brotherhood Reconciliation, is on the Administration of the Division of World Mission.

MRS. MAE YOH0 WARD

The stage and script committees have been holding meetings in preparation for the project.

All proceeds from the show will be used by the club for charitable projects for children in this area, a scholarship for a girl to enter nurse's training, assistance for a retarded girl on a year-around basis, and donations to local fund drives—such as cancer, heart, March of Dimes, Tree of Lights, baskets for the needy at Christmas and gifts for senior citizens during the Easter season.

Choose Fashion Show Chairmen

Theme for the annual fashion show sponsored by the Granite City Junior Service club this year will be "Affaire de Cœur."

Ronald Pennell, speech and English teacher at Granite City high school, and Mrs. Gloria Skubish, third grade teacher at St. Mary's Catholic school, Madison, will serve as commentators for the show, to be held April 2 at the Granite City high school auditorium.

Committee chairman named by the president, Mrs. Jo Anne Gaumer, are Mrs. Rena James, general chairman; Mrs. Carol Tritschuh, stage; Mrs. Jean Ann Vrenick, models; Mrs. Bernice Fitzpatrick, tickets; Mrs. Doty Melkamp, program; Mrs. Charlene Pohlman, script; and Mrs. Mary Schaffner, advertising and posters.

Colorado Truck Crash Fatal to Former Resident

Ronnie Wood, 24, Morrison, Colo., a former Granite City, was killed Thursday evening at Lyman, Colo., when the truck he was driving jackknifed and he was crushed in the cab of the vehicle.

He had been bringing a load of produce from Texas to Denver, Colo., and was about two hours away from his home in the Denver suburbs when the crash occurred.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wood, who moved to Colorado 20 years ago. The father is a painter at the Coors brewery and formerly was a street car motorman on the McKinley Bridge line. Mrs. George Wood is the former Helen Taylor.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by a brother, Gary Wood, and two sisters, Mrs. Maxine Bean and Miss Jeanne Wood, all of Morrison; and an aunt, Mrs. Weldon (Eunice) Neunreiter of St. Louis county, a former Granite City resident. Funeral services and burial took place today in the Morrison area.

years of school, they have etched an academic record at SIU that is now being challenged by another set of twins—sophomores Merrill (left) and Mark Allen—of Reynolds, both made straight A's in the fall and are above 4.5 overall.

Local Twins at SIU Ending Remarkable College Career

Come June, a remarkable academic brother act at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, will be climaxed when the Murphy twins graduate, probably with highest honors.

The Granite City pair, Edwin and Thomas Murphy, will cap nearly identical undergraduate careers in which each has finished every term on the Dean's List. They have collected a total of 19 straight A grade reports so far.

But another twosome is looming large as their successors, even though the Murphy act will be almost impossible to follow. They are the Allen twins, Reynolds, Ill., both of whom started off this school year with straight A's for the fall term. Merrill and Mark Allen, sophomores, are carrying grade averages so close that only a computer can quickly tell them

Toffant at Conference On Preventing Disorder

State Police Capt. Emil Toffant of Madison left Sunday for Sacramento, Calif., to attend a conference on prevention and control of civil disorders, conducted by the International Association of Chiefs of Police for the U. S. attorney general.

One of only two chosen from the Illinois state police to attend such sessions, Capt. Toffant will participate in instruction and discussions from today through Friday at the California highway patrol headquarters. He is commander of the ten-county District 11.

Topics will include riot prevention and control and the restoration and maintenance of order.

$15,000 Damage Suit

A damage suit for $15,000 was filed last week in Madison county circuit court in Edwardsville for Gladys Torrell against Lawrence Odum as the result of alleged injuries sustained in an auto accident on Jan. 12 at Klein and Bissell streets in Venice. Negligence was charged.

GC Swimmers Capture 1sts at Belleville

Three Granite City swimmers captured first place trophies and one set a new pool record in the "YMCA Age Group Meet" held Saturday and yesterday at Belleville.

Mark Buegner, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buegner, 2128 Lindell blvd., received a first place award in the 100-yard breaststroke event, breaking the existing pool record with a time of 1 min. 26.5 sec. In the same event, at an earlier meet in St. Louis, the local youngster tied the Ozark AAU record at an even faster pace.

Also capturing top honors in the 71-event meet were Karen Reisinger, who won a first in the 100-yard breaststroke and placed second in 100-yard freestyle; and Ann Bickhaus, first place in the 200-yard butterfly. Two other local swimmers competing were Paddy Jim and Michael Baggott. Karen and Ann will compete for state honors on March 9 in the Illinois State "YMCA district" contest at Champaign, with the boys participating in the Boys' YMCA district competition at Illinois State University at Normal, on Saturday, March 16.

Coolidge Second in Collinsville Tourney

The Coolidge Junior high school Braves basketball team won second place in the Collinsville invitational tournament, beating East of Alton 61-47 Thursday night but losing to Cahokia 41-37 in the Friday night title game.

High scorer for Coolidge in both games was Eric Stuber, who tallied 29 points against East and 17 against Cahokia. Mike DeRuntz had 10 points against Cahokia.

How Sweet It Is--Red Devils Share Title

It wasn't long ago that Venice Coach Bill Ohlendorf said he didn't think anyone else in the MCM Conference would beat Bunker Hill, enabling Venice to tie for the championship, but Friday night proved him to be joyfully wrong.

The Minutemen were upset at Livingston 73-71 in double overtime and the Red Devils beat Alton 63-47 at the Venice gym.

The Venice win and the Bunker Hill loss deadlocked them for first place with both teams having final conference records of 10-2. The Red Devils finished the year 20-5, identical to the 1966-67 season.

Coach Ohlendorf said, "We have tried to be a running team all year, and Friday we were better at running than we have been for the complete season."

"Part of the reason is that we had everyone in the game, I substituted quite often, giving everyone a rest. Alton tried to keep paces with us and didn't even come close."

Quarterly Venice leads were 18-12, 36-20 and 64-32.

"For the first time this year, everybody played well as we forced them to make a lot of costly mistakes which we cashed in on. We stole the ball 15 times in the first half, not counting all the times they made floor mistakes like double dribbles, traveling and turning the ball over."

Team Effort Praised

"Our win was due to one thing--team effort. If we can keep it up, we will be all right in the district. We were able to give the boys rest and tonight we will be ready for the opener at O'Fallon."

"In the seven years I have been coaching at Venice, we have won the conference once, tied twice and came in second twice. The first two years, we finished near the bottom."

Scoring for the Red Devils were Larry Mosby 17, John Gardner 13, Tom McIntosh 12, Mike Leatherman and Fessor Gray 10, Russell Turner eight, Frank Glover six, Jim Miller four, George Gorman two and Harold Gorman one.

Bowls Three 189 Games

Bowling a series of 567 the hard way, Bette Summers, a member of the Ladies Classic League at Bowland, shot three consecutive games of 189 Thursday night.

GC Quintet Loses Two, Ties for Fourth Place

Warrior cagers suffered a double defeat during the weekend but were treated kindly by other results and finished in a three-way tie for fourth place in the final Southwestern Conference standings.

The Granite City high school basketball team was beaten in a conference game against the Red Birds at Alton 101-74 Friday night as the Warriors tried to vainly to claim undisputed fourth place. They led 32-22 after the first period and trailed 42-44 and 66-61 after the other quarters.

The Warriors, East St. Louis and Belleville West tied for fourth with Alton and Edwardsville tied for second behind the champion Collinsville Kahoks.

Edwardsville beat East St. Louis 50-34 and Collinsville rolled over last-place Wood River 72-47.

Four Starters Foul Out

Coach Don Detendorf commented, "You can't put young, inexperienced team like we had to use the fourth quarter and expect very much. We

Cahokia Loses, MHS Clinches First Place

The Madison high school Trojan basketball team came out on top of the Midwest Conference again Friday night, and without even having to win.

The second-place Cahokia Cougars, who had the only chance to catch the Trojans, lost to Roxana 73-67 as Don Tuttle fired in 24 points for the Shells.

Madison could have wrapped it up by winning either of two league games this week. The Trojans were visiting Belleville West for a non-conference match and downed the Maroons 68-54 behind Gary Lusk's 22 points. This brought the Madison season record to 15-3, the Trojans have lost only to Granite City, Cahokia and Edwardsville.

Tight Defense Decisive

Coach John Logan said, "I couldn't have asked for a better second half than we played. We played the tightest defense that we have been able to accomplish so far this season. It is always a good idea to keep a team far out and make them try to sink the long shots. That's what we did and they missed on their first attempt."

"One chance at the basket is all we gave them, as we out-rebounded them 40 to 32. Joe Collins, Keith Williams and Tom Weston accounted for most of our rebounds--Collins 13, Weston 11 and Williams nine."

"Besides our good rebounding we were able to get four boys in double figures."

"Everyone pitched in" and gave it a real team effort. We pressed early and hard and forced them to make a lot of mistakes. We stole the ball several times and made them get overawed."

54% Shooting Accuracy

The Trojans hit for 54% from the field and the Maroons 41%.

Madison will finish its season this week at Roxana Tuesday at 8 p.m. and against Highland Relays on Friday at 8:15 p.m.

Scoring for the Trojans were Gary Lusk 23, Collins 16, Williams 14, Weston 13, Dale Clinton two and Titus Shippe one.

GC Improves Indoor Track Relay Times

The Granite City high school indoor track team traveled to the St. Louis National Guard Armory Friday afternoon to compete against 30 other teams in the annual St. Louis Indoor Relays, placing sixth.

The Warriors totaled six points. Lincoln of East St. Louis won its second meet in two weeks with 41 points, Soldan 24 and East St. Louis 20.

Coach Jim Morrison said, "I'm extremely pleased with the outcome. Our boys made a good showing, scoring in four events. All of our times from last week improved."

In the 50-yard dash, Jim Jones tied the GCIS school record with a time of 6.7 seconds. Sharing the record with Jones is Vince Debevec.

The sophomore relay team placed third in the mile relay, breaking its own 3:38 record set last week by two seconds. Participating were Mike Allen, Jim Duffley, Ken Elliff and Steve Benko.

In the varsity mile run, Mike Burris finished fourth with a time of 4:56.6, breaking the old mark of 5:02.6 set by Jim Stephens in 1966.

The sophomore 880-yard relay team set a new school record of 1:46.3, breaking the old one of 1:51.2. Running in that race were Gary Penrod, Roger Miller, Mark Lakatos and Dennis Gillie.

Coach "Mark" Lakatos said, "We have a lot of hard work ahead of us in preparing for the next meet Friday. Many of the St. Louis county schools will join in this one. It will be the biggest indoor meet of the early season."

Warriors Win Wrestling Sectional By Point; 4 Going to State

Winning sectional wrestling competition isn't anything new for the Granite City high school wrestling team, which did it again Saturday night. But it's just as satisfying and exciting as ever, the Warriors concluded after noosing out East St. Louis Lincoln 44-43.

The Warriors won the Granite City sectional for the 15th straight year, setting a new state record for the most consecutive wins.

Four of the 11 who had survived district competition at Wood River qualified to advance to the state meet March 1 and 2 at Northwestern University, Evanston. Lone Warrior sectional champ was 154-pound Paul Hoffman.

The first sectional was held here in 1939 and since then the Warriors have won 24 of the 29 meets. There was no tournament in 1944. East St. Louis has won twice, Champaign twice and Wood River once.

The victory was unexpected, Decatur having been favored. The Warriors were more inexperienced than their past teams, and had been plagued with injuries most of the season.

Team Point Totals

But at the end of the 1968 sectional it was GCHS on top, followed by Lincoln's 43 points, Decatur 38, East St. Louis 35, Civic Memorial of Bethalto 33, Springfield Lanphier 28, Springfield 22, Roxana 21, Decatur Eisenhower 19, Carbondale 17, Piassa Southwestern 14, Quincy 13, Jacksonville 12, Decatur MacArthur nine, Lawrenceville nine, Springfield Southeast seven, Wood River seven, O'Fallon six, Mace 5 and Charleston, no points.

Being stronger in the light and middle weights, wrestled before the heavier divisions, GCHS led through most of the tournament.

The turning point may have come in the 145-pound second-place match when Warrior Ricky Smith pinned his challenger with only one second remaining in the match. Under a 1930-era rule used this year, those placing third could challenge the second-place wrestler for the right to go to the state meet.

1930-VINTAGE RULE enabled Dempsey Cross of Granite City to qualify for the state wrestling tournament. Rod Walls, Carbondale, lost the title bout to an East St. Louis matman and then was challenged by Cross, who had placed third in the weight division. Cross, pictured lifting Walls, won on points, 7-2.

Wrestling at the same time beside Smith was challenger Dempsey Cross, 138 pounds, who won his match 7-2. Earlier, Bob Miller, 103 pounds, beat his challenger 5-2 after Miller had lost the title in a 3-2 bout.

With the top two in each of the 12 weight divisions advancing, the four Warriors will be among 192 wrestlers vying at Evanston.

Lincoln could have tied for the sectional championship if 180-pound Esau Tolson could have pinned Roxana's John Sticht, but he had to settle for beating Sticht on a 7-3 decision, leaving Lincoln one team point behind Granite City.

The closeness of the meet caused wild excitement among the crowd of many hundreds of fans. Hoffman won first place by beating Joe Lutz of Carbondale 5-2 in the championship bout.

Alton Dragway 1968 Season Opens March 3

The 1968 season at the Alton Dragway, Route One, Alton, will begin Sunday, March 3, with Quad-Cityans among the participants. Its brand of auto racing is regarded as the fastest growing sport in the U. S., and use of roll bars, safety belts, flywheel shields and helmets is required.

Since the 1967 season ended in October, work has been carried out to improve equipment and facilities for the comfort and safety of drivers and spectators, Milton Kingston, manager, reports.

On Saturday evening, a youth, recreation and music gathering was conducted at Calvary Baptist Church. A film on "Fast Way Nowhere" was presented by the youth department.

Annie Armstrong Week is to be observed March 3-10. A week of prayer for home missions will be observed, with the theme for all churches "Pray in One Accord."

Traffic Charge Filed

Speeding charges were filed against Dennis Boyer, Rural Route One, at Denver street and McKinley avenue at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and James Crouch, 3237 Wayne avenue, in the 1800 block of Madison avenue at 1:25 a.m. Sunday. Wilton Shemwell, 1366 Norwood drive, was booked for careless driving in the 2500 block of Madison avenue at 2:30 a.m. Sunday.

While attempting to pass, an auto driven by Tony A. Majestic, 4418 Highway 162, collided with the left side of another driven by Audrey L. Nation, 2210 Edna street, who was making a left turn onto Edna street in June, plans to attend graduate school in economics at the University of Chicago.

Alford Cited as Future College Level Teacher

Gary L. Alford, son of Arnold Alford, Lawrenceville, Ill., former local residents, has been named one of the best 1124 future college teacher prospects among college seniors in the United States and Canada.

He is an economics major at Illinois State University, Normal. The list was released last week by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation.

Graduate school deans throughout the nation receive the list, recommending the students as worthy of financial support.

2 Runaway Ohio Boys Apprehended in Venice

Venice police at 8 a.m. Sunday apprehended a Vandallia, O., youth, aged 16, and a Dayton, O., boy, 15, who had run away from their homes and were walking toward the levee on Bremen road, carrying their clothes in pillowcases, a blank pistol and telescopic sight of a rifle.

Questioning brought out that they had taken the four-door 1962 auto of the Dayton youth's father in Ohio and abandoned it on Circle drive in Lee Wright Homes, Venice, leaving inside it a 22-caliber rifle. They were held for juvenile authorities.

Three-Auto Accident

An auto driven by Ruby J. Fitch, Maryville, ran the traffic signal at 27th street and Madison avenue and was struck by another driven by Edith L. Mitchell, 3107 Yale drive, at 1:10 p.m. Thursday. The Fitch auto then struck the rear of the parked car of Wanda B. Leonard, Collinsville. The Fitch woman was charged with a traffic signal violation.

M. W. Purcell Killed; Steel Plant Employee

Malcolm W. Purcell Jr., 22, Caseyville, a clerk in the molding department at American Steel Foundries, was one of two drivers killed in a collision in the 9200 block of Bunkum road in Canton township, St. Clair county, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. State police said the westbound auto of Orbin L. Spain, 27, Fairview Heights, ran off the blacktop road at a curve. In returning to the pavement, it veered into the path of Mr. Purcell's eastbound car.

The men, alone in their cars, were trapped in the wreckage and were pronounced dead when taken to St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis.

Driving Charge Filed

John Ballentine, Two Companions Arrested

John Ballentine, 25, of 308 Washington avenue, Madison, was held in the Madison city jail on a disorderly conduct charge this morning and two other men were free on bond under the same charges following their arrest at 10:30 p.m. Saturday in the 500 block of Madison avenue.

Police reported they picked up Ballentine, Lawrence Frazier, 25, of 2821 Edgewood drive, and Dean Bolin, 25, of 2429 East 25th street, after a Madison resident, Ira Stephens, reported the men confronted him with a shotgun in the 300 block of Madison avenue about 9:20 p.m.

Stephens said he took the shotgun away from the three men and took it to Johnny Lewis' tavern, Fourth street and Madison avenue, where he left it with the bartender. Police located the men as a result of a description of their car provided by Stephens. Police said they found two shotgun shells on Bolin and a 12-gauge shotgun in the trunk of the car. Bolin posted $50 cash bail and Frazier posted $25 cash bail pending hearings March 6. Police said Ballentine may be arraigned in court later today.

Edgar Lile, 66, Dies; Native Granite Cityan

Edgar H. Lile, 66, of Highland, formerly of Granite City, died at 7:15 p.m. Saturday at the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Danville, Ill., where he had been a patient 2½ years.

Brandes and Love Nuptials At St. John United Church

Bouquets of white gladiolus and pom poms interspersed with greenery adorned the altar of St. John United Church of Christ, for the wedding Saturday evening of Miss Karla Love, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Love, 2666 Madison avenue, and Sp/4 Edward Brandes, whose parents Fire Capt. and Mrs. Alvin Brandes, reside at 2212 Edison avenue.

Rev. Paul Surbey officiated at the 7:30 p.m. candlelight double-ring ceremony.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Isabel Schmidt, organist, who accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Lois Ann Billrey. Vocal selections included "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Dr. John R. Vasiloff escorted the bride down the white carpeted aisle and gave her in marriage.

She chose a full length gown of white bridal satin and Alencon lace. A detachable train of satin and Alencon lace, attached at the back with a satin bow, fell gently into a Cathedral train. A crown of seed pearls held in place a shoulder length veil of bridal illusion, and she carried a nosegay of white roses, carnations intermingled with lace, greenery and lily of the valley, with long white streamers.

Miss Rhonda Love, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant, and Mrs. Philip Johnson of Peoria, Ill., served as bridesmaid.

Their street length dresses were identical in design of blue lace over taffeta. A-line style with long sleeves, they featured a tiny bow in the back with long streamers to the hemline.

A small bow held in place a matching blue nose tip veil. Their flowers were nosegays of white and blue carnations edged in lace and greenery.

Phillip Johnson of Peoria served the groom as best man, and William Jennings was groomsmen. Pete Jateff and Richard Harley served as ushers and candlelighters.

Mrs. Love chose for her daughter's wedding a light blue nylon ensemble with Navy blue accessories. Mrs. Brandes selected a two-piece Royal blue knit suit with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception for wedding guests followed the ceremony and was held at the American Legion hall on Madison avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Brandes were hosts Friday evening to a rehearsal dinner at the Rose Bowl.

Mrs. Fannie Jennings presided over the guest book. After a wedding trip to Kentucky, the newly-married couple will reside in Anchorage, Alaska, where Sp/4 Brandes is stationed with the 12nd Brigade, 23rd Infantry. They plan to leave on March 3.

The former Miss Love attended the local high school and Mr. Brandes was graduated from Granite City high school in 1966. He was employed at Fabrester's Service Station prior to entering the Army in June 1967.

The bride-elect was graduated from Granite City high school in 1967 and is employed by an insurance company in St. Louis. Mr. Werths was graduated from the local high school in 1962 attended SIU-SW campus and is presently employed in the sales department of Granite City Steel Co. Wedding plans are indefinite.

MRS. D. JOSEPH HORRELL JR., whose marriage took place at Basilica of St. Louis, King of France (Old Cathedral), St. Louis, Saturday morning. The former Miss Cathleen Mary Claywell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Claywell, former residents, now living in Hazelwood, Mo.

Miss Claywell, Jos. Horrell Are Wed in Old Cathedral

In a double-ring ceremony taking place Saturday morning at Basilica of St. Louis, King of France (Old Cathedral), St. Louis, Miss Cathleen Mary Claywell became the bride of D. Joseph Horrell, Jr., before an altar decorated with gladiolus, mums and greenery.

The former Miss Claywell is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Claywell, former residents now living in Hazelwood, Mo., and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bendary, 2716 Iowa street. The groom is a son of Mrs. Mary Jan Horrell, North Woods, Mo.

Following the ceremony, a reception and buffet luncheon was held at the Hazelcrest Lounge, Hazelwood, Mo. The couple will reside in North Woods, Mo.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a gown in candle light peat de sole overlaid with motifs of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The Empire bodice had deep oval neckline and long tapered sleeves with inset of lace from shoulder to hand. A slender floor length skirt was enhanced by a full court train.

Her formal veil of illusion bordered in Alencon lace was arranged Madonna fashion over her hair. Her bridal bouquet was a modified colonial bouquet arranged with carnations, stephanotis and butterfly roses.

Miss Mary Claywell, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Miss Becky Horrell and Miss Francine Claywell were bridesmaids. Tina Horrell, the groom's youngest sister, served as the flower girl.

The attendants wore dresses in vanilla ottoman accented with Venise lace interwoven with burgundy velvet ribbons. The trimming, defined the Empire bodice and extended to the hem of a wide band panel. Dior bows in matching lace and ribbon with machine veiling adorned their heads. They carried colonial bouquets of carnations centered with double-headed roses with burgundy streamers.

Mr. Horrell chose for his best man, Richard Veech, and groomsmen were Donald Ollert, Kenneth Haas, Nathan Hall and Joseph Brockman.

Red ribbons went to local clubs Cloverleaf and Gardenaires, and a white ribbon to Garden Study, for their year books. Blue ribbons for history books went to Cloverleaf of the Garden Study, for their year books. Serving groups, awards committee, also, were Mrs. William Stafford, East St. Louis, Mrs. B. C. O'Neil, St. Louis, Mrs. Charles Kohl of Granite City.

A salute to Illinois observing its Sesquicentennial was apparent in the table decorations which were silhouettes of the map of the state showing the state bird, the state flower, the state motto, also part of the decorations were later given as attendance prizes. Guest of honor was the state president, Mrs. Frank J. Packee, who addressed the assembly in the morning session and on afternoon program was James C. Helfrich, Dept. of Conservation whose subject was "Pollution and Its Effect on Wild Life."

Attending from Granite City other than those mentioned were Mrs. Fred Orr, president of Cloverleaf Club, Mrs. Leo Roman, Mrs. John Lehman, president of Garden Study Club, and Mrs. Mary Kristian of the Gardenaires Club.

Venice in District Meet This Evening

Venice will seek its fifth district championship and fourth in a row when it competes in the O'Fallon tournament beginning tonight.

The first-seeded Red Devil basketball squad will oppose eighth-seeded St. Henry's Preparatory school of Belleville at 7 o'clock tonight at O'Fallon. At 8:30 tonight, fourth-seeded Columbia will oppose fifth-seeded Macatash.

Tomorrow's quarterfinals pit together second-seeded Dupo and seventh-seeded Lovejoy of Brooklyn at 7 o'clock, and third-seeded O'Fallon and sixth-seeded Lebanon at 8:30.

Semifinal Wednesday
Tonight's survivors will clash at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, and Tuesday's winners will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.
Semifinal victors will decide the district championships in a game at 7:30 p.m. Friday at O'Fallon won't its district last year. This year's tourney groups Venice of the Madison-Clinton-Macopin Conference, Dupo of the Midwestern Conference, two independents, Lovejoy and St. Henry's, and four Cahokia Conference quintets.

In the past three years Venice hosted its own district, entertaining Lovejoy and Marquette each time. In the championship games, Venice defeated Marquette 58-46 in 1963, Lovejoy 104-60 in 1966 and Marquette 71-49 in 1967.

At the regional level, the Red Devils lost to Alton 68-63 three years ago, Granite City 67-42 two years ago and Alton 65-58 last year.

The previous district championship was in 1941, when the Red Devils topped Breese 36-24 at Venice.

Altoff Regional Next
The winner of this year's O'Fallon district will play Cahokia in the Belleville Altoff regional next Monday.

The Red Devils have participated in two tournaments this season. They played first in the Freeburg tournament by beating New Athens, Belleville West, Gibault of Waterloo and Okawville. Venice placed third in the Litchfield meet splitting decisions with Wood River and beating Hillsboro.

The Red Devils lost only two games in the conference, and tied for the championship. Coach Bill Ohlendorf said that he has chosen as his district squad Seniors John Gardner, 6-2, forward, Tom McIntosh, 6-0 guard, Mike Leatherman, 6-2 guard, Russell Turner, 6-0 center, Jim Miller, 6-2 forward, and Frank Grover, 6-0 forward; one junior, Larry Mosby, 5-10 guard; and two sophomores, Fessor Gray, 5-10 guard, and Ken Houltis, 5-10 guard.

$20,000 Accident Suit

A $20,000 damage suit was filed last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville for Floyd Ledbetter against Rupert L. Urrey of Granite City as a result of injuries sustained in an auto accident last Sept. 8 on Route Three near Hawthorn street, Hartford.

Logan-Scherrills Vows Exchanged

Miss Sue Scherrills, 609 Broadway, Venice, and John Logan, 104 Abbott street, Venice, were married Saturday in a 3:30 o'clock ceremony at the Venice Methodist Church. Rev. Dan Williams, pastor, officiated.

The former Miss Scherrills is the daughter of Leon Scherrills of the Broadway address and Mrs. Elizabeth Scherrills, 1250 Oriole street, Venice. Logan's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Logan, 104 Abbott.

Mrs. Mary Ann Ramsey, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. Bob Homess was best man.

The bride was attired in a white street-length dress. Mrs. Ramsey wore a two-piece beige suit.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Ramsey home, 1404 Abbott street.

The couple will reside in Madison. Both attended Venice schools, and he is employed at the McDonnell-Douglas Co.

FIRST OF THREE award winning coin and gold certificate collections on display this week at the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank being inspected by Arthur Roman, right, and Leo Konkel. It features gold coins and gold currency.

The most valuable is a rare $20 double eagle called the "Famous Saint-Gaudens High Relief." It had to be struck five times at 700-ton pressure. President Theodore Roosevelt ordered them struck if it took all day to make one piece. The display also contains a vial of gold dust panned from streams near Carson City, Nev.

SIU-SW Program Aids Students in Need

Because of their poverty, hundreds of thousands of our youth are being denied the opportunity of enrolling in colleges and universities, says Prof. Hyman Frankel of Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus. "Their economic poverty is further intensified by the poor education they receive in the ghettos and slums of our cities and rural communities."

"Even when they succeed in making time through 12 years of public schools and are awarded high school diplomas, their applications to colleges and universities are unacceptable because they cannot pass the entrance examinations," Frankel says.

An Experiment in Higher Education (EHE), led by the SIU professor, is being conducted at SIU-SW's East St. Louis Center, based on the premise that lack of motivation, necessary academic preparation and appreciation for the value of a college education do not lie solely with the student.

"To cure his educational and cultural deficiencies," Frankel says, "the student needs the opportunity to take part in an educational program designed to encourage and enhance his learning potential rather than a simple make up program."

Started in 1966, Funded jointly by the Office of Economic Opportunity and the state of Illinois, the year EHE program opened in the fall of 1966. Enrollment is limited to young persons who were graduated from a high school but have little opportunity to continue their education because they do not have the money or the academic preparation from the public school system.

Major objective of the program is to provide enrollees with the equivalent of the first two years of college so they can enter a regular university as juniors and continue through graduation.

Frankel says course content focuses on knowledge and information which helps the student understand his environment. "It is not the usual collection of courses as taught at other universities. The community is his 'classroom.'"

"Learning is more than instruction in the classroom—it includes community-based study and work assignments and represents, within the wider university, direct equivalent to a general studies program on the freshman and sophomore levels," Frankel claims.

Small Group Seminars The EHE academic setting has been changed to include daily small-group seminars. Under the guidance of the seminar leader, daily discussions allow the student to relate academic experience with his own experience, making it easier for him to bring an academic vocabulary into agreement with his own daily language. The seminars are augmented by colloquia and workshops.

"Because we hope to limit the differences in views to those naturally resulting from variations in personality, experience, personal contact and individual competence," Frankel said, "instructors and students have equal status in the seminar."

The leader's objective is to combine teaching and counseling so that it becomes almost unnecessary for students needing assistance—academic or personal—to go beyond their assigned seminar leader. The teacher-counselor serves as a liaison between the faculty and the student. For the faculty he plans an examining role in terms of the student's comprehension and degree of preparation. He provides the faculty with a measure of feedback and immediate evaluation of his classroom effort.

Study and Experiences In keeping with the theory of the community as the classroom, work-study is used to enhance the experiences of the students. They work as educational research aides, tutors in the public schools, and as program assistants with the Economic Opportunity Council of East St. Louis. In effect, they get paid for learning.

Despite their handicaps, EHE students are similar to many students in the typical college freshman. They are recent high school graduates, 50% male, almost all single, about 18 years old, and aspire to the same goals. For example, more than half of them would like to have upperclass status and its social and economic advantages and realize they must have a higher education if they are to achieve their goals. Ninety-eight per cent of them intend to complete the requirements for a college degree and nearly one-third want to do graduate work. In contrast to their backgrounds, most of them want large homes in the suburbs and plan to have relatively small families.

According to Frankel, the dropout rate for EHE is 30%, considerably lower than the national college average.

Despite a negative forecast for the students of EHE, after one year's experience there is considerable evidence to suggest that with appropriate educational programming and proper adjustment they can and will have successful college experiences, Frankel says. "Many have demonstrated remarkable improvement in their ability to work and have increased the likelihood that they will be successful. Even those whose improvement was not dramatic over the first year give evidence that with additional time and adequate academic support they too can successfully become college graduates," Frankel explained.

Short Circuit Causes $650 Damage to Home

A short in the wiring caused damage of $600 to the building and $50 to the contents in a fire in an unoccupied frame house owned by James Hendricks at 2329 East 23rd street, about 11 p.m. Thursday.

A gas meter in the basement blew up. Firemen were on the scene an hour and 50 minutes.

At 10:25 a.m. Friday, firefighters were called to Granite City Metal Decorators, 1100 Niedringhaus avenue, where paint on an assembly line ignited. They were on the scene 45 minutes.

A weed fire behind 123 Briarcrest was extinguished at 4:45 p.m. Thursday.

Pontoon Village Adds Church Site

An annexation petition involving a tract of land owned by Pontoon Beach Church of Christ at 4039 Pontoon road was ratified Thursday evening by the Pontoon Beach village board of trustees. Annexation of the property brought the first church into the corporate village limits.

The new area extends the village boundary 100 feet westward along the north side of Pontoon road, in an area known as Long Lake Shore Acres. The petition submitted by James T. Dudley and other trustees of the church, was adopted immediately, after suspension of rules.

In other action, the village officials accepted the resignation of Patrolman Albert Lowe from the volunteer police force and placed on first reading ordinances relating to licensing requirements for laundromats, service stations and bookkeeping firms. In each case, licensing fees were set at $25 annually.

Permission was granted Mrs. Nancy Rosales, village clerk, to join the Illinois Municipal Clerk's Association and trustees agreed to pay $8 annual dues. Trustee Otto Kreher asked the board to send a representative to the March meeting of the Madison County Firemen's Association.

Village President Thomas Stafoff submitted a police department report for the period Jan. 23 to Feb. 20, during which time the volunteer force contributed 865 manhours, answered 20 calls, investigated six traffic accidents, one hit and run, five burglaries, six reports of prowlers and one case involving a juvenile.

The latest report contrasted sharply from the previous month which noted a total of 93 calls answered and 1310 manhours worked by department personnel.

Bills approved for payment from the village general account, totaled $4125, leaving a Jan. 31 balance of $11,386; disbursements from the road and maintenance fund amounted to $36, with the fund showing a balance of $992; special sewer fund, $212 disbursements; and $125 balance with a balance of $876.

Receivables in the village motor fuel fund and state motor account were $1854 and $8936, respectively.

Special Lenten Services will be held each Wednesday and Friday in Lent with a Low Mass being offered every Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. and every Friday morning at 10 a.m. Every Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. a service of Stations of the Cross, Meditation and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be held.

Regular Sunday services of Low Mass and sermon at 7:30 a.m., church school at 8:30 a.m., Sung Mass and sermon at 11 a.m. will continue as will the regular weekday service schedule of Low Mass on Tuesday and Thursday at 7:30 a.m., Wednesday and Friday at 8:30 a.m. and Saturday at 8 a.m.

Confessions are heard every Saturday afternoon at 5 p.m. in the church. Confirmation classes and Inquirers' Classes will begin for both children and adults during the first week in March. Further information concerning services or classes may be had by calling 876-5521 or 876-7245.

32 GC Optimists View Skaters; Lunch at Rink

Granite City Optimists held their weekly luncheon meeting Thursday in the warm-up room of the Wilson Park ice rink and viewed demonstrations of skating skills by Miss Sue Dietrich of Edwardsville, a figure skater, and a nine-year-old local youngster, Christopher Brandt.

Club members were welcomed by Barry Loman, president of the Granite City park board and a member of the Twilight Optimist Club, who introduced Park Commissioner William Kozak.

Park Supt. Harold Brown, a

Granite City Optimist member who served as host for the noon meeting, presented John "Buck" Kenner, manager of the ice recreational center, replete with cumulative total of $2,715 persons has attended sessions at the rink to date, with the largest attendance on a single day, totaling 1590 persons.

The rink manager described various operations at the facility and the Optimist Club skating in popularity. He pointed out that representatives from communities interested in establishing an ice skating facility still request inspection tours of the local rink. Recently, groups visited here from Carlinville and Belleville, Kenner said.

After viewing an expert performance by the nine-year-old skater, Brown explained the boy had never been on skates prior to the opening of the Wilson Park rink. "Chris has progressed to such a high degree of proficiency that he has been invited to join the Gateway Skating Club of St. Louis, one of the area's top skating organizations. He said the young skater was "championship material" and predicted he will go far in the sport.

An invitation to club members to "try out the rink" was accepted by Ray Kaegel, John Drees, Wesley McIlroy and Arthur D. Roseman, whose skating abilities received plaudits from their fellow Optimists.

Other guests attending the program were Robert Geller of the Alton Specialized Services center, a guest of C. A. "Bud" McMillan, and B. J. Davis, Granite City superintendent of schools, a guest of Earl Lee. Thirty-two were present. Dr. Raymond E. Troyer, president, conducted a short business meeting, and plans to hold the annual "Optimist Oratorical Contest" in conjunction with this week's session were announced by Raymond Tom Jones, Coolidge junior high school principal and contest coordinator.

Eight youths have so far registered to compete in the local event Jones said.

Summer Project Announced

EOC to Operate Youth Employment Service

During the coming summer months, the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission will conduct a "Youth Employment Service" from its Neighborhood Centers, EOC Director, Harris announced today. A service center is located in the Quad-Cities at 145 Madison avenue, Madison.

The director said the project is designed to provide youths, 16 to 20 years of age, with meaningful work opportunities for the summer vacation period.

"The success or failure of this program will depend on the full cooperation of the community-at-large and our ability to prepare youngsters, some of whom have never worked, for acceptable participation in the summer life of our communities," Harris told the Press-Record.

He explained that letters currently are being sent to business, industries and home owners describing the general aspects of the program and involving their participation as employers.

Replyes Are Sought "The letters contain postal cards which the addressee is asked to sign and return indicating his interest or lack of interest to us in advance. Through this mailing, the EOC Centers can build up a 'jobs bank,'" he added.

"The support and cooperation of civic leaders in all Madison county communities is earnestly requested to effectively conduct this program," the EOC official stated.

Registration forms will be distributed to area high schools so that interested youngsters may register and provide their employment background and job interest to us in advance. Harris said. Registration forms also will be available at Neighborhood Service Centers.

ISES Cooperation The anti-poverty agency head pointed out the Illinois State Employment Service is cooperating in the project by providing its standard job order forms and counseling personnel to train junior counselors and job order takers. The latter group will work in the EOC centers with the primary task of bringing the young job seekers and job takers together, he said.

Each youth sent out on a job will be thoroughly counseled and acquainted with the demands of the specific employment he is about to undertake, Harris explained. "Additionally, we plan to contact each employer and ask whether the work was performed in a satisfactory manner or not."

"We believe that follow-up is absolutely essential to the success of this kind of program," the director commented, adding, "We feel following up not only assures employers that we are desirous of giving good service, but also lets the youths know if they have done well or not."

Pack 20 Blue, Gold Banquet

The annual Blue and Gold banquet of Cub Scout Pack 20 was held on Saturday evening at Kirkpatrick Homes Recreation Hall.

Richard Willmore and the Webelos Den gave the opening flag ceremony, and the invocation was given by Clyde Lee, Webster school principal. The welcoming address was given by Eugene Miller, institutional representative.

Seated at the speakers' table were Cubmaster and Mrs. Ben Ponder, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glosick.

$25,000 Suit Filed For Girl in Accident

An auto accident on Oct. 5, 1966, led to the filing of a suit seeking a total of $25,000 for Linda Kelley, a minor, by her father, John Paul Kelley, her father, against August Sacadat last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

The complaint states that the girl was riding in an auto which collided with Sacadat's car on Old Alton road at Route 270, Mitchell, causing severe and permanent injuries. The suit calls for $25,000 for the girl and $10,000 for her father to cover medical expenses.

Falls on Steps, Sues

A fall on a stairwell led to a $25,000 suit in behalf of Christina Marcovsky against the Lender department store, filed last week in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

The complaint alleges that she caught her heel on a protrusion while walking down the stairs, causing her to fall and become seriously injured.

Patient for Surgery

Norman "Jack" Mott, 2421 Benton street, entered Jewish Hospital Saturday in preparation for major surgery on Tuesday. He will be a patient there for an indefinite time.

8 From Here in SIU Songfest at Venice

Eight Quad-City students will sing at three area high schools Tuesday with the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus Male Chorus and Women's Glee Club.

The men's group, under the direction of Leonard Van Camp, assistant professor of music, and the women, directed by G. Burton Harbison, graduate assistant, will perform both separately and together at East Alton-Wood River high school, Venice high school and Civic Memorial high school, Bethalto.

Truck, Auto Sideswipe

A truck driven by Robert L. Cann, 518 English place, Mitchell, and an auto driven by John J. Bathon, 720 Washington avenue, Madison, sideswiped as they approached a single lane on Nameoki road at Pontoon road at 12:15 a.m. Saturday.

90,000 Trout to Go Into Lake Michigan

About 90,000 young lake trout will be stocked in the Illinois waters of Lake Michigan this year, the Illinois Department of Conservation has reported. An equal number was stocked last year.

The lake trout, a Lake Michigan native, once was a very important species to commercial fishermen. But it was virtually wiped out by the early 1950's. Predation by the sea lamprey, a primitive eel-like creature that would attach itself to a trout and drain it of its blood and body fluids, was the most important of several factors responsible for the decline of this desirable fish.

Commercial fishermen cannot take trout in Lake Michigan but sport fishermen may do so with hook and line tackle. The daily limit is eight trout. There is no size limit or closed season on the fish. Anglers must have an Illinois fishing license in their possession when fishing in Illinois waters in Lake Michigan.

THE NAVIATORS, nationally famous Naval Air Training Command choir from Pensacola, Fla., who performed Thursday evening at the Granite City Army Depot Officers' Open House. The singing officers and cadets, under the direction of Lt. Darrel W. Engwell, USNR, were billeted at the Depot prior to an appearance at a DAR Cotillion in St. Louis.

Impromptu Performance Here by Naviator Choir

An enthusiastic group of young Naval Aviation and Marine Aviation officers whose music has been heard and enjoyed by the public on radio and television programs throughout the world gave an impromptu performance Thursday evening at the Granite City Army Depot Officers' Club during a Washington's Birthday special hour.

Known as the "Naviators," the 40 young men who comprise the choir are all flight students in training to become flying officers in the Fleet or Marine Corps at the Pensacola Naval Air Training Command in Florida.

Their appearance here was arranged by Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, Depot commander, who invited the choir members to stay at the local military installation during a three-day visit to this area.

On Friday evening, the ensemble presented a performance at the St. Louis Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. The "Patriots' Cotillion," held in the Khorsass Room at the Chase-Park Plaza Hotel, St. Louis.

Fast Turnover
All members of the Naviators are volunteers and must maintain above-average grades in all phases of flight and academic training. Of the choir appearing at the Depot, less than half will be singing with the choir six months from now.

The rapid turnover which makes the unit unique among male choral groups is primarily due to members moving forward along into the advanced flight training program, according to Lt. Darrel W. Engwell, USNR, who directs the choir.

Despite their heavy schedule as flight students, the choir members devote much of their off-duty time to rehearsals and are accorded no special privileges, the officer said.

Absences occasioned by public appearances must be made up upon their return to Pensacola, he added.

The Naviators have made network television appearances on the Ed Sullivan, Perry Como and Johnny Carson shows.

Each year, the choir provides musical selections for the Supreme Allied Commander of the Atlantic and NATO Christmas program which is broadcast here by CBS, in Canada over CBC, in Great Britain by BBC, and around the world through the facilities of the Armed Forces Radio Network.

Financing of Regional Bus System Being Placed On A Sounder Basis

As noted here several times in the past, it didn't make sense for Missouri legislators to ignore metropolitan transportation needs and the acceptance of the federal funds offered to the Bi-State Transit System by the Illinois and federal governments. Now, favorable action finally has taken place.

With $300,000 being made available by Missouri for 1958, the transit authority will get another $200,000 from this state and $1 million from the U. S., enabling it to reverse a cost squeeze that has seen services reduced and equipment replacement accounts jeopardized.

Bi-State for some time has been the only major public transit network operated solely from farebox revenue. This unrealistic situation coming to an end, and those who depend on bus service—or would like to—can look forward to it as a convenience likely to have some degree of permanence.

Drafting of Graduate Students Will Affect Higher Education Planning

Regardless of how wise or unwise is the decision to draft graduate students into the armed forces, it will need to be taken into consideration in higher education planning.

With SIU-SW anticipating a 30% to 50% drop in first-term male graduate students due to the scheduled induction of many college graduates in the 23-26 age range there may well be more classroom capacity than was originally projected.

All of which further weakens the argument for a junior college, and further challenges the logic of Illinois Higher Education Board efforts to discourage enrollment of freshmen and sophomores at state universities.

Time Is Near to End Unshiny Views, Conditions in Community

In order for the annual areawide "clean up, paint up, fix up" campaign May 5-18 to achieve maximum effectiveness, planning by all Quad-Cityans should begin now.

Any list of local needs usually includes more attractive neighborhoods, yards, streets, sidewalks and alleys, plus vistas more pleasing to the eye when approaching this community by highway.

Much progress in this regard is within the grasp of Quad-City residents and businesses this spring — if they make the most of their opportunity.

Cougar Victories Assured —If They Use Their Mascot

Now that a live mascot has been obtained for the local university, we relatedly realize how much was involved in the selection of a team name a year ago.

Cougars may be ideal pets, but we hope nobody asks us to do some of the baby-sitting chores. It's lucky the students didn't happen to vote for such nicknames as the Rhinos, Lions, Bears, Gorillas or Pythons.

We're ready to furnish a recount and then vote for the Redbuds or Bluejays. Or, would you believe Penguins?

Maybe the best choice of all would be Giraffes; it could attract basketball players of this height.

Name and address must accompany such letter but will not be revealed if anonymity is requested. Communications of less than 250 words will be given preference. All are invited to contribute. Unsigned letters will be rejected or edited.

Inaction By County On Local Murder Indicates It May Never Go To Trial

Madison county is widely regarded as a friendly area. But William Harder, a Canadian who came to the U. S. 12 years ago to ply his trade as a carpenter, did not find it so.

Critical of what he viewed as hoodlum influence in the Wood River carpenters' local, Mr. Harder became the subject of harassment last summer. He was awakened twice during the early morning of Sept. 9 by men outside his trailer home on Chouteau street, once at 1 a.m. by operation of a power lawnmower and three hours later by a shotgun blast that broke a window of the trailer.

He followed two men who threatened to shoot his cow, but first telephoned an individual and said, "and — etc in front of my house with guns. I wanted to let you know this in case anything happens to me." A few minutes later, he lay dead of shotgun wounds in his street. The names were relayed to county officials.

Suspects must be considered innocent until proven guilty, and objective rules must be applied regarding the admission of evidence and testimony. But it is frustrating and disillusioning to local residents to see months go by without the case going to the grand jury or coming to trial. There are no plans to dismiss existing murder charges but also no plans to proceed with prosecution due to a lack of "new evidence."

In the past, such a "wait and see" approach has usually ended in eventual abandonment of slaying investigations. Passage of time dims the memories of those with knowledge of the circumstances, obliterates conditions present at the time and scene of the crime, and makes it more difficult to assemble witnesses due to illness, death and change of residence.

A local husband, father of five and grandfather of four has been brutally killed. Surely, alert police work—aided by the cooperation of all citizens—could uncover more information, enabling the case to reach a stage where a trial jury can evaluate the validity of prosecution and defense presentations.

If the country ever again makes ends meet, they may not recognize each other.

OPPOSES SALES LINKED TO FIRST PRESIDENT

To the Editor: We the people of the United States of America and Granite City certainly can be proud of our American heritage.

The people who signed the Declaration of Independence of the United States were financially sound, but put their lives in jeopardy for the sake of a new nation.

Our own morning line has very long odds on this tax passing from the national scene under the current Administration.

Especially so since the Administration is doing nothing to attack the more basic cause of the balance-of-payments problem.

It is not in any significant way cutting back on its own overseas commitments, which lie much nearer to the heart of the problem than tourism does.

Nor is it pursuing the governmental austerity at home which is the only international cure for payments deficits.

At the same time it proposes that travel tax be levied on a business with a deficit, if everything goes exactly perfectly, of some $8 billion.

The travel tax, then, is merely the latest edition of a weary story.

For the mistakes of their government, the people will pay, not only with their money but with their freedom.

LANES AT KIRKPATRICK BEING BLOCKED BY CARS

To the Editor: I know our fine police should get out of the bakery and check the Kirkpatrick Homes alleys a little more often after they have been called.

It would not take them over five minutes to do the job. I know that people have to stop to load or unload their groceries or laundry; that is all right and is not my complaint.

But when you have to drive around two to three blocks to get out on the main street, that is bad.

Fire Insurance Policy Described As the Least Read Legal Document

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

Have you read your fire insurance policy lately—or ever? The fire insurance policy has been described as "the legal document which almost everyone has but to which he pays the least attention."

Many lawsuits result because people do not comply with the conditions of their policies.

Standard Form Use

Actually, every insured homeowner in the state has the same basic fire coverage, since insurance companies are required by law to use a form of policy prescribed by the State Department of Insurance.

Here are some conditions of this standard policy:

If you suffer a loss, you must notify your insurance company promptly.

When an insurance adjuster comes from your company, you must let him to see the property, and must cooperate with him.

You must take inventory of the property damaged, showing if you can, the cost of the property, its age and fair market value.

Within 60 days after the loss you must give a sworn statement, called a proof of loss, to your insurance company. You must state to the best of your knowledge the cause of the fire and amount of the loss, and provide certain other information required by the policy.

If you allow your property to become rundown, or carry explosives onto the property, or allow it to remain unoccupied for a 60-day period, your insurance may be suspended.

Testimony Under Oath

The insurance company has the right to examine you under oath about the loss.

If you and your company cannot agree as to the value of the destroyed or damaged property, you can demand an appraisal and nominate an appraiser to represent you.

You must bring a lawsuit within 12 months after the loss if you and the company fail to reach an amicable settlement.

Otherwise, your claim is barred and you will be unable to recover.

Tour Europe In Style—On $7 a Day

(Wall Street Journal)

The striking thing about the Administration's proposed travel tax is that it is intentionally designed to interfere with the liberties of American citizens.

That the tax will inhibit the ability of ordinary Americans to travel to Europe is not merely an unfortunate side effect.

The whole purpose of the proposal is to allow the Government, in its ultimate wisdom and benevolence, to control the movement and spending of its citizens.

It is all very well for the Administration to cloud the coercive intentions of the tax with deductions and other gimmicks. Yet in doing so it paints a curious picture of its own notions of social worth. It allows a $7 daily allowance free and taxes the next $8 a day at half the ordinary 30% rate.

The intention, apparently, is to avoid interfering with the dirty shirt set, skylarking students and other minimal spenders.

But the modest American who has put aside $1000—say $200 a year for five years—for the total expense of two weeks in Europe will find he now needs about 15% more, which will prove painful if not prohibitive.

To help enforce these elevated and discriminating no-

Revising Stocks for More Income

By THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. We are retired and hold Southern California Edison, UMC Industries, Texas, Tel. Electric, Sperry Rand, Revlon, RCA, Litton Industries, General Electric, American Telephone and Telegraph, American Airlines, World Airways and Royal Dutch.

We need more income. We have come to doubt our own judgment in investing and wonder if we would be wise to buy mutual funds?

A. Your holdings in Southern California Edison, Texas, AT&T, Royal Dutch and UMC give you reasonable income with a reasonable chance for growth in the value of your investment.

The other stocks you have range from no income to a high of 2 1/2%; most are well under 2% in yield.

Growth vs. Income

While some of them have excellent growth records, they aren't companies you should have picked for investing if your emphasis was to be on income.

If you could afford to wait a few—or several—years, the stocks you hold should eventually give you a very good rate of return indeed.

However, since you have indicated you can't wait, I suggest you talk over your objectives with a good broker and your bank's trust officer and try to come up with a list of good-quality companies among utilities and major manufacturing firms that can be expected to return you 4% or 5% on your investment.

Expensive Commission

Mutual funds may be one way of reaching your objective, but you would have to pay a hefty sales commission to buy into them; at age 70, this may be expensive.

You could, of course, escape

Filing of Tax Estimate Explained

(This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a service to taxpayers.)

Q—We never filed an estimated tax before. How can I tell for sure what my income is going to be this year?

A—The best method of estimating your 1958 tax is to use the income and expense figures appearing on your 1957 return.

For example, if your income or expenses change during the year, you can amend your declaration when quarterly payments are due in June, September and January.

Remember, too, that an estimate is just that. As long as your payments are made on time and total at least 90% of your final 1958 tax liability, you will not be penalized.

Medical Insurance

Q—I want to deduct my medical insurance premiums but don't see the place to do this on my tax form. Where do they go?

A—Enter your medical insurance premiums on Page 2 of the 1041 instructions.

New Sub-Professional Jobs Needed

By DR. ARTHUR M. ROSS
Commissioner, Bureau of Labor Statistics

Millions of persons who are determined to structure social work out of the labor force entirely could be trained for sub-professional jobs in many fields, including social work.

There will be a heavy demand for social workers over the next decade or two. During the 1955-75 period, we estimate that social work manpower requirements may rise about 40%, from 150,000 to 220,000.

Manpower requirements in this field are expected to exceed, by far, the supply of such workers that are likely to be available from the traditional source—graduate schools of social work.

To minimize the gap, the profession must come up with assistants to professionals.

The Department of Labor has recommended that many professional jobs be redesigned so that people with less skill and training can be employed to perform routine tasks as assistants to professionals.

Aldermen Jim Popovsky and Willie Morris complained that committees are being bypassed and that there may be favoritism in the awarding of city business during a lively meeting of the Madison city council.

Past presidents of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary and their husbands were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schilling of Bensenville. Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, president, conducted a brief business meeting. Twenty-two attended, and guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Conway, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hommert and Mrs. Sophie Koester.

25 YEARS AGO
FEBRUARY 26, 1933

Graduate schools in the four local cities registered 28,421 persons for War Relocation Bond Two in the first three days. A 47,000 total is expected. Very few had more canned foods to report than the limit of five cans per person but one listed 300 cans.

The Madison County Club has reduced its budget for the coming year to $4000. Efforts will be made to restore the membership to a total of 75.

50 YEARS AGO

FEBRUARY 26, 1918

The "drys" of Illinois are starting a campaign for prohibition following Congressional enactment of the nationwide resolution in Washington. The Anti-Saloon League of Illinois is holding a "dry" legislature in 1919 in order to assure approval of a dry law. City dry campaigns are in progress in Chicago and Alton.

Walter R. Dennis will leave Wednesday for Camp Taylor, Ky., He and his brother, Herbert W., established the Dennis Brothers furniture store at 19th and B streets seven years ago and moved it to 20th and B streets.

Present were Arthur Buente, Conrad Lueders, Christy Baechle, John Kieffman, Herman Rust, Gustave Hoelscher, Misses Alma Strackeljohn, Elsie Baechle, Verna Diehle, Elenora Hoelscher, Josephine Kieffman and Esther Buente and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kahle.

SAFETY EMPHASIZED IN DRAGWAY RACING

To the Editor: Some ten years ago, organized drag racing got its initial start as a means of cutting down the illegal and hazardous street racing that occurred almost nightly in our area.

At that time, normal enforcement had failed to solve the problem, and the Alton dragway project was looked upon as

Rebuilding Antique Organs Tests Retiree's Skills

Rebuilding and refinishing reed organs of antique vintage isn't exactly the most common hobby in the world, but it's the only one that Edwin Meyling thinks he would like.

And now that he's been at it for six years, Meyling insists the past-time is "just the thing" for him because it keeps him busy in his retirement years, requires the continued use of his skill as a wood pattern maker and, most of all, is "constructive and productive."

The work, he admits, is exacting at times because of the great precision with which reed organs were built, and therefore the need of precision in rebuilding them. The six organs which he has acquired since he took up the past-time originally were built in an era from 1880 to 1908.

"But that's what I like about it," Meyling said. "After I work on one of these organs I can see what I have accomplished, and it gives me a feeling of self-satisfaction. I've always liked to see what I produced. If I spent a lot of time watching television, all I could see is what someone else produced."

Retired Three Years
Meyling, who is 68 and has been retired since 1965, relates that he took up the hobby of rebuilding old organs due to a course of events that began when a friend of the family gave him an organ that had been used for several years in a church.

"It was in pretty fair shape except for deterioration from age, and I decided to completely rebuild it, replace the worn parts and refinish it," Meyling said. It took him about a year, Meyling recalls. He completely dismantled the instrument and found the air bellows in a deteriorated condition, which he says is the principal defect in most old reed organs.

ANTIQUE REED ORGANS which he rebuilds and refinishes in his basement workshop are checked by Edwin Meyling of Granite City, retired wood patternmaker. The hobby tests his working skill and keeps him occupied, Meyling said. The organ at left was made just before turn of the century of red elm wood. The other was made in 1891 by a Detroit firm.

"I didn't know anything about supply houses or other sources of materials I would need," Meyling said. "So I rebuilt that first bellows from hospital bed sheeting. It worked fine." As time went on, however, he learned more and more about the construction of organs and now buys regular organ cloth and other materials from supply houses.

Decided on Another
Meyling recalls that when he completed rebuilding and refinishing that first organ he felt such satisfaction in the accomplishment that he decided to remake another. If he could find one. That first organ is now in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Vera Willard, in Davenport, Iowa.

In his home today, Meyling, who lives at 2318 Edison avenue, has four completely rebuilt antique reed organs, all handsomely finished and in perfect playing condition. Each organ, he says, has its own "personality" in tone, which is apparent when his wife, Freda, plays for a visitor.

Meyling does not play, but he points out that this is no deterrent in remaking the organs, since no tuning is required in reed organs. Once the reeds, small metal elongated pieces of brass are installed in the original construction of the instrument, they are permanently tuned and operate similarly to a harmonica when air is blown into it.

Meyling has another organ in his basement workshop. He bought it for $50 not long ago and dismantled it.

"I goofed when I bought this one," Meyling asserts.

Damaged by Mice
"When I took it apart, I found the wooden stripping along the reed panel had been partially eaten away by mice. That ruined the organ. Once the reed panel is damaged, the organ is useless as a playing instrument."

"But the cabinet contains some panels and a few pieces that I can use for parts, so it isn't a loss," he said.

IMMENSE VOLUME and 72-key instrument board feature this Hinners' reed organ made in Pekin, Ill., in 1908 and completely rebuilt by Edwin Meyling, retired Granite City wood patternmaker. Meyling, who does not play, looks on as wife, Freda, demonstrates high quality tone. Meyling located the organ in a small Missouri town after it had been in Missouri river flood waters and spent a year remaking it.

is 77 years old, has 61 keys and a sharp, distinct tone with high volume.

His last project is a Kimball, made in Chicago just before the turn of the century. Meyling located this one in Alsey, Ill. and cost him $75. It is made of red elm wood and produced a lustrous dark finish resembling stained walnut or mahogany.

"I thought it was walnut when I bought it," Meyling said, and didn't discover it was red elm until I started refinishing it. That was really a job. The owner must have put a coat of paint on it every year. I didn't think I ever would get that scraping paint off the cabinet."

Meyling estimates that rebuilding an organ, from the time he starts dismantling it until it is reassembled and refinished, takes an average of a year for each instrument. It costs him an average of about $60 for each organ for parts, replacement of worn panels, and rebuilding of the bellows which is necessary in every instrument.

Plans To Sell Them
Meyling plans to sell several of the organs and noted that anyone interested in the instruments is welcome to inspect them in his home. He said he expects to get about $300 for each of the organs.

The older an organ is, the better its tone, Meyling explained. This is due, he said, to the aging of the wood, just as the tone of a violin improves with age. For that reason, he said, he has refinished all of his organs by staining and polishing.

A organ never should be painted, he advised, because every coat of paint changes the tone to a duller sound.

Meyling now is searching for a new project, but it may take a little time. This time, he said, he is trying to find an Estey model.

Sans Souci Appointed To Easter Seal Post

Gary Sans Souci of Granite City has been appointed director of public education for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of St. Louis (formerly the St. Louis Society for Crippled Children). It was announced today by John H. Knist, Society executive director.

Sans Souci, who lives with his wife, MaryAnn and two children, Jason, one-year-old and Nicole, two years old, at 2000 Richmond avenue, is a graduate of Southern Illinois University and a former employee of the Press-Record. His duties as director of public education will consist of planning and implementing public relations, publicity, information and fund raising activities of the Society and to act as administrative assistant to the Executive Director.

"We consider Electric Heat an all-around bargain,"

SAY MR. & MRS. GEORGE BOOHER OF DECATUR, ILL.

"Electric heat is so clean and carefree, we sometimes forget we even own it. That wasn't so with our old heating system. It left regular reminders of its existence... dust and filth on the walls and furniture, for example.
"Now we enjoy all the convenience and comfort of room-to-room temperature control, too.

Would we recommend electric heat to our friends? We certainly would... enthusiastically!"
Another item the Boohers are happy about: The rate for electric heat has been reduced. Nice thing to keep in mind if you're planning to build. For more information about modern electric heat, contact your Illinois Power office.

"The cleanliness of electric heat is beyond comparison," says Mrs. Darrell Keim, Amman, Illinois.

"Our daughter appreciates how quietly electric heat operates while she's studying," says Mr. Kenneth Koels, Highland, Illinois.

170 Teams of Job Recruiters Visit Carbondale SIU Campus

More than 170 teams of recruiters from business, industry and government have visited Southern Illinois University's Carbondale Campus during the past six weeks and another hundred or more will come during the last two weeks of this month, seeking SIU trained personnel.

Richard E. Gray and Steve Richardson, Placement Services consultants on business and industry jobs, said the pace is much more rapid than last year, and that graduating students are apparently more eager to interview the recruiters.

"More of our students apparently are willing to accept positions in distant places than usual," Gray said.

Richardson, who handles placements for technically trained students, said the demand is much stronger than last year, and that increasing numbers of firms are making direct appointments to interview graduates of the two-year technical programs. He also directs placement of degree graduates of the schools of Technology and Agriculture and scientists from the physical and biological sciences.

Gray supervises placement of non-technical graduates in business and industry jobs. These include students trained in management, marketing, accounting, economics and some of the liberal arts.

Among the companies or agencies who have or will send recruiters to SIU by the end of February are some of the nation's business and industry giants: International Business Machines Corp., Ford Motor Co., Shell Companies, Chicago Tribune, Monsanto Company, American Can Co., Corning Glass Works, Merck & Co., Inc., Sears, Roebuck & Co., General Foods Corp., U. S. Gypsum, General Motors, Sinclair Refining Co., Republic Steel Corp., General Dynamics, Westinghouse Electric Corp. and Radio Corp. of America.

Numerous insurance companies are regular patrons of the Placement Service, and an extensive range of government agencies send representatives, from Army and Navy audit agencies to the C.I.A., from the U.S. Geological Survey to the U.S. Treasury Department.

Job openings vary from computer science to grain merchandising, from investment analysis to hatchery training programs, from livestock buying to advertising copywriting, from social services to all phases of engineering.

6 Tickets Remain for Blues-Chicago Game

Harold Brown, Granite City park superintendent, announced today that due to cancellations six tickets are available for the St. Louis Blues-Chicago Black Hawks ice hockey game, set for this Saturday at the St. Louis Arena.

The park district-sponsored trip was a complete sellout until cancellation of the six remaining seats was received last week, the superintendent said. A total of 129 local residents are planning to attend Saturday's contest, he added.

Tickets are priced at $2.50 each, which also includes a $1 fee for round-trip bus transportation. The seats, located in the $2.50 reserved section, were made available to the park district at the special discount price by the Arena management.

Reservations will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis by calling the Wilson Park office at 877-3629. Buses will leave the Wilson Park ice rink parking area at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

New Service Center Open For Vietnam Veterans

A one-stop service center for Vietnam veterans—a high priority project planned in America's ten largest cities by direction of President Johnson—opened Friday in Chicago to provide "instant" assistance to veterans in obtaining approximately 50 direct benefits and services provided by law.

The agency also gives "personalized" help to ex-servicemen and their families. Attention is being given to all areas, federal, state and local, in helping the veteran and his family completely and profitably add to civilian life.

The office opened at 2030 West Taylor street, Chicago, in ribbon-cutting ceremonies. Regional officials of federal and state agencies as well as representatives of all service organizations attended.

John B. Nasar, manager of VA's regional office at the same location, said the agency operation is not a VA project, but is a multi-agency project designed to help veterans with their specific problems. "There naturally will be emphasis on the educationally disadvantaged since their problems are demanding," Nasar said.

5 Agencies Represented

The center, manned by representatives of three federal and two state agencies, is designed to streamline the veterans' initial problem of finding the right agency to solve his particular case, he added.

"If experts manning the center cannot provide this personalized service, they will have direct lines to the agency most concerned," Nasar said. He pointed out that all veterans organizations have offices near the center and they also will aid in the program.

Bids on Lease of Canal Land Called for Mar. 5

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in St. Louis will open sealed bids for the lease of government property adjacent to the Chain of Rocks canal at 10 a.m. March 5 in the district office.

Eleven tracts ranging for six to 81 acres are available for eight-month leases beginning March 15.

Successful bidders must agree not to plant, cultivate or produce corn, cotton, dry edible beans, grain sorghums, peanuts, rice, tobacco or wheat, which are price-support crops in surplus supply.

Those leasing the tracts in 1967 were Otto J. Wofford, Daniel A. Wofford, Henry E. Winkelman, Calvin Black, Harry Deatherage, William D. Deatherage, Charles Klug, William D. Hanfelder and Luther Simmons.

Checkerboard Squares Entertain K. of C.'s

The Granite City Checkerboard Squares entertained members of Tri-City Knights of Columbus Council 1068 and their wives Thursday night at the council converted its second regular meeting of the month into a social event.

About 38 Checkerboarders, nationally known group, presented demonstrations of square and round dancing before a group of about 100 persons.

Bob Boyd, director, explained the various routines demonstrated by the youths, from beginning dance steps to more complicated numbers. Young Shelly Boyd was the caller.

The group was introduced by M. E. Bartosiek, Carl Petty was chairman of the program. A special guest was Rev. Terry Shae, new pastor of St. Mark's Church in Venice. Food and refreshments were served.

Four Unions Pledge No Work Stoppages

Four more labor unions with jurisdiction in the Illinois portion of the metropolitan area have pledged that they will not halt work on construction projects because of jurisdictional conflicts, the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corp. has announced.

The new pledges raise to 12 the number of construction unions which have aligned themselves with the program of LAMP, the Labor and Management Plan serving the bi-state area, to make the region more attractive to new industry.

The LAMP group is urging an extension of no-work stoppage pledges and of a system of pre-arbitration conferences. The last four unions are located in St. Clair County.

Bernard Resigns Position With County
Leon G. Scroggins, Madison county state's attorney, has announced the resignation of Burton C. Bernard of Granite City as special assistant state's attorney.
Bernard conducted railroad tax litigation in behalf of the county and most of its school districts over railroad tax objections.
The litigation has been terminated by action of the U. S. Supreme Court, which refused to hear appeals filed by the county. It started four years ago under former State's Atty. Dick H. Mudge and involved two appeals to the Illinois Supreme Court and two to the U. S. Supreme Court.
Cooperation in the action to retain about $1½ million of protested taxes held in escrow were the county board of supervisors, the county clerk and taxing bodies. Scroggins, who commended Bernard for his work, said he expended a great amount of time and effort in the course of the protracted litigation.

Beloved wife of Charles

MORE ABOUT Firemen Rescue

$500 to the contents. The family is unable to occupy it and is staying at the home of an aunt in St. Louis.

Four in Family Away Lablanc's wife, Marjorie, was working a night shift as a nurse at Alton State Hospital at the time of the fire. He is an electrical engineer and television repairman.

Three other children, Linda, Michael and Steve, were spending the night at the homes of friends. One of the boys was in the neighborhood and rode to the local hospital in an ambulance.

Capt. Floyd Bell, who was in charge of the unit that responded to the alarm, and Fireman Robert Nott entered the home without gas masks, while Smolik and William Hodge used masks to aid them in the search.

A large crowd was attracted to the area by the fire, and many people gathered outside. There might be someone else inside. However, this was found through further exploration to be incorrect.

Lablanc suffered second- and third-degree burns to his face, arms, hands, chest and back and his hair was singed.

Escape Attempt Made An inspection by firemen showed that some attempts had been made to open windows in the home.

Fire Chief Earl Fronbarger today expressed praise for the prompt call to the department and the rapid response by the firemen.

Other weekend Granite City fire calls included $50 shed fire damage at the Tom Candler home, 2507 Duane street, where burning trash started the blaze at noon Saturday; a utility pole ignited by burning grass in the 2400 block of Linden avenue at 2:50 p.m. Saturday; and a grass fire at the Robert Maynard home, 2609 Willow avenue, at 3:15 p.m. Saturday.

Mrs. Agatha Sparks, 73, Dies Suddenly at Home

Mrs. Agatha A. Sparks, 73, of 2702 East 24th street, Granite City resident for almost 50 years, died unexpectedly at home about 11 a.m. yesterday. She had not previously been ill. An inquiry is pending.

Mrs. Sparks was a native of Waverly, Ky. She was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. Her husband, Charles Sparks who survives, served as alderman for the Sixth Ward for about 20 years.

Mrs. Sparks also is survived by four sons, Tom, Vernon, Charles and Joe Sparks, all of Granite City; three daughters, Mrs. Frances Shelton and Mrs. Fred (Peggy) Belcher, both of the local community, and Mrs. Tom (Jeanie) Carmody of Jacksonville, Ill.; 16 grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

Funeral details are given in today's obituary column.

Agreement Reached by Illinois Power, Clerks

Negotiators for Illinois Power Co. and its office clerks reached agreement Friday in Decatur on a new contract. Electrical Workers Local 1390 represents 700 clerical workers throughout the territory served by the gas and electric utility, including the Quad-Cities.

Details were withheld pending ratification in local-level elections during the next 10 days, but the agreement was described as calling for substantial wage increases and changes in benefits and working conditions. The old contract expired Nov. 1.

3 Emergency Cases Sunday at Hospital

Patrick Daniels, six-year-old son of Mrs. Mabel Thomas, 219 South Fourth street, Brooklyn, was admitted for observation at St. Elizabeth Hospital yesterday, after the child was struck by an auto near his home. His condition is not believed serious.

Treated in the hospital emergency room and released were Barbara McCauley, 22, of 2201 Terminal avenue, who was scratched and bitten by the family cat on the right arm and left leg, and Davey Middleton, nine years, son of Robert Middleton, 2164 Orville avenue, who sustained a dog bite.

Care for Sewing Machine

If you expect your sewing machine to give you service and satisfaction, give it proper care.

To guarantee perfect operation home sewers will need to clean, oil and lubricate their machines periodically, depending upon where the machines are kept and how much they are used. Refer to the instruction book for specific care information, especially motor care.

To keep your machine in good working condition you will need these tools: a soft cleaning cloth, a lint brush and sewing machine oil.

After a week of sewing or when you have completed a garment remove lint from the take-up-lever, thread guides, tension disc, bobbin case and machine surface with a soft, clean cloth. If necessary, dampen the cloth to clean the machine surface but do not use a detergent.

Use a lint brush to clean the feed dog and hook or thread handling areas around the throat plate and slide plate. After each cleaning apply a drop of sewing machine oil to these areas. For specific oiling points, refer to the sewing machine instruction book.

After oiling, always sew a few lines of stitching on a scrap of material to remove excess oil. Every few months clean the area below the face plate and oil the top and bottom of the machine in the oil holes.

If the machine is to be stored, clean all exposed parts and areas behind the face plate. Swab these parts with a lint brush saturated in sewing machine oil to protect the machine from rust. Rust damage is more likely to occur when the machine is stored in a closet that when the machine is kept open to air circulation.

Keep a small piece of fabric under the pressure foot with the needle down through it to protect the foot and feed from damage. When the pressure foot is down, the pressure spring is released and its life prolonged. Also excess oil will be carried into the fabric by the needle instead of accumulating on the needle.

Washable Wool Yarns

The new machine-washable wool yarns, now widely used in all-wool garments, look promising for use in blends with other fibers.

Research is showing that wool treated for machine washability contributes highly desirable qualities to blends with cotton and rayon that in turn have been treated for durable press. The best qualities of each are combined.

Scientists have produced blended fabrics and tested them for wear in shirts and slacks. They also laundered the garments many times in home washers and tumble dryers. Little difficulty with either soil removal or development of permanent wrinkles was observed.

As with most durable-press garments, the shirts and slacks looked best when allowed to cool during the final few minutes in the dryer. Wrinkles formed in the dryer or it was disappeared rapidly when the garments were placed on hangers.

The treated garments showed some loss of durability, but the outstanding retention of appearance and complete ease of care may offset this defect, especially in casual and semi-dress clothing.

State Certifies Cycle Helmets

Motorcycle helmet manufacturers have now certified 54 brand names of helmets as meeting or exceeding Illinois standards to this summer. The new motorcycle safety legislation.

An "Interim Approved Motorcycle Helmet List," released by Ross V. Randolph, director of the Department of Public Safety, has been compiled for all Illinois law enforcement agencies. Supt. William H. Morris, Illinois State Police, said actual brand names are listed, for guidance of officers and equipment owners.

In addition to meeting basic standards, each helmet must contain two pieces of reflective material, of any color, each square inches. In addition, an exterior label will bear manufacturer's brand name.

Kits containing reflective material and label should be available at motorcycle helmet dealers. Operators and passengers who do not have approved helmets should contact their dealers, and should expect kits with labels from the manufacturer in the near future.

Public Mental Health Group to Meet Mar. 7

The first 1968 general membership meeting of the Madison County Association for Mental Health will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 7, at the Special Services Building, Alton State Hospital.

The program will be presented by Paul L. Longmarino, director of the alcoholic treatment center at the hospital. Anyone interested in mental health is invited to attend the meeting.

The Madison County Association for Mental Health is a group of volunteer citizens interested in mental health; primary purposes are education and legislation.

The association was organized in Madison County in February 1967 to develop a coordinated citizen movement toward obtaining improved care and treatment of the mentally ill and handicapped, improved methods and services in research, prevention, diagnosis and treatment of mental illness and handicaps, and promotion of good mental health.

During the past 12 months, the association has participated in the following projects:

Assisted Alton State Hospital with open house.

Assisted the Madison County Mental Health Society, Quad-City Center (Granite City Mental Health Clinic) and the Illinois Department of Mental Health with a conference for the clergy and other existing programs.

Assisted the Madison County Mental Health Center, Inc. (Alton Mental Health Center) with a workshop for social agencies and other programs.

Compiled data for a directory of health, education, welfare and recreational facilities in Madison County.

Stimulated interest of other organizations in county and state mental health legislation and supported the mental health budget before the state legislature.

Son Arrives for Airmen, Mrs. Wilfong

Airman First Class Norman Wilfong and his wife, the former Marcella Wierzer are announcing the birth of their first child, a son born Feb. 12 at K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base, Mich. The new arrival who weighed 10 pounds and 10 ounces has been named Norman Ray.

Both the parents were graduated from the local high school in 1961. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Wilfong, Lake drive and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wierzer, 12 Frontenac lane.

Collide in Venice

The rear of an auto driven by Sherrell L. Byrd, 48, Mercedocia street, Venice, was struck by a car driven by William E. Skinner, 2670 Edwards street, at College and Mercedocia streets in Venice at 4:45 p.m. Thursday, according to a report by Venice police. Officers said Skinner was headed east on College street and Byrd was going south on Mercedocia when the collision occurred.

Council Sets Goal of Aiding 125 Boys in Summer Camping

An effort to send 125 non-scouts and low-income-scouts to Camp Sunnen this summer was authorized Thursday night at the February meeting of the Canokiah Mound Boy Scout Council executive board. The dinner was held at the Grand Cafe annex.

Service groups throughout the council area to be given an opportunity to aid in the financing. Council President Carl E. Mathias said, Granite City Rotarians are providing $300 of the estimated $3000 required. Last year, 108 non-scouts were sent to the camp.

All but four 1968 weekly campsites reservations have been made by council troops, including 25 Uniwah (Quad-City) district troops. However, an additional eight troops could be accommodated by adding a week to the Camp Sunnen season in August.

Committee Chairman N. Mathias appointed the following 1968 council operating committee: chairman, organization, Key; leadership training, Fred Kauten; camping, Col. Charles E. Hoskin III, assisted by Col. David Fox; activities, John Solenberger; finance, A. P. Steinhauer; advancement, Frank Hudak; long-range planning, Howard Kaseberg; Camp Sunnen development, Henry D. Karandjeff; and office personnel, Russell Crecelius.

Certificates signifying the council's successful role in Region 5's growth in membership victory over the other 10 regions in the U. S. were presented to the council officers, to John Newell, council fall roundup chairman, and to one of the three districts, Uniwah.

Karandjeff said discussions leading to acquisition of the title to Camp Sunnen are continuing and that dedication of a special memorial there has been tentatively set for late March or early April. M. A. Wittevrangel, Ralph Bailey and Eugene Alessi have aided in preparing the memorial plaque, he noted.

H. Roe Bartle to Speak
Through arrangements handled by Karandjeff, H. Roe Bartle will be the guest speaker at the annual council appreciation dinner April 20 at SIU-SW, it was announced.

Bartle, former Kansas City, Mo., mayor and scout executive, is a nationally known speaker.

An award plan honoring unit leaders and establishing competition in various phases of scouting through use of traveling trophies was approved by the executive board. Details remain to be decided.

Auto Rally March 16

Explorer Bill Anderson explained plans for a council explorer auto rally at 10 a.m.

March 16, originating at the Fairmount track lot and following an 85-mile course during the following three hours. Up to 40 cars, each manned by a driver, navigator and observer, are to participate.

An auto rally school is set for March 6, and the rally itself will be preceded by a driving test and an auto safety check at the starting point, the scouts were told.

Attention was called to regional training sessions March 2 at Bradley University, Peoria. District Chairman William F. Winter, Robert Simon and Floyd Linenfelder reviewed progress toward 1968 district goals related to 1970 council objectives.

Camp Tractor, Workshop

The scouts authorized expenditure of up to $1700 to purchase a tractor for mowing at Camp Sunnen and to aid in assembling and installing a 4000-gallon workshop and storage building at the camp, located near Potosi, Mo.

A three-part camp maintenance plan dealing with yearly work, cyclical maintenance and master development proposals, currently is being developed and the annual pre-camp inspection has been set for April 27.

Installation of a trailer to augment camp staff housing is being studied.

Junior Leader Training

Camp leader training is scheduled for March roundtable meetings and junior leader training is set for April 29, May 6 and May 11 at the Granite City Army Depot.

Council Executive Eugene Coe reported that computerized handling of scout unit registration forms will begin in 1969, reducing paper work at council offices.

Spring activities will include council budget planning March 18, the next council executive board session March 28 at the Army Depot and the national Boy Scout council meeting May 23-25 in Chicago.

Airman Carl R. Haug Assigned to Guam

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Haug sr., 2415 Logan street, have been informed their son, Airman First Class Carl Richard Haug, is on temporary duty at Anderson AFB, Guam.

The airman, a Strategic Air Command food service specialist, supports B-52 Stratofortress aircrafts who fly almost daily bombing missions against Viet Cong targets in Vietnam. He is a graduate of the local high school and is permanently assigned at Ellsworth AFB, S. D.

35 New Offices Planned

American Investment Co. will open 35 additional loan offices in its seven finance divisions during 1968, it was announced Thursday by Charles F. Burns, senior vice-president and director of supervision. At year end, the firm operated 794 loan offices in 42 states. In addition, AIC owns Biederman National Stores, Inc., a chain of 112 furniture and appliance stores in 17 states, and the Charter National Insurance companies.

GC Council Meeting Set for Tonight

A second round in the Granite City council's never-ending battle over engineering is anticipated at tonight's 8 o'clock session. The unsigned contracts with the St. Louis firm of Research Planning & Design were not resolved at last week's meeting.

The mayor has refused to sign the contracts which were approved Jan. 15 by the city council.

Other routine business will be transacted.

Stop Sign Charge Filed

Kenneth R. Prince, 2823 Myrtle avenue, was arrested at 9:05 p.m. Friday on a stop sign violation charge at Pontoon road and Franklin avenue.

2 Local Men Building Roads in Vietnam

Builder Second Class Marvin L. Wallace, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Wallace, 2916 Madison avenue, and Builder Second Class George M. Nesbit, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Nesbit, 2807 Warren avenue are serving with the U. S. Naval Mobile Construction Battalion 62 at Camp Haskins near Da Nang, Vietnam.

The mission of their battalion is to build and maintain bridges and roads in the Da Nang area, construct living quarters for military personnel and provide support facilities for combat operations.
